Testify Elizabeth Nicole,2023-02-09 At a young age Elizabeth Nicole walked in darkness while searching for the light In her young adulthood she found that light had always been calling her For some time things got better for her but there were also struggles struggles to break free from the darkness that for years she had walked in Many people have the same struggles they just have a different name for them They wander through this life longing to be free but are not sure how to win the fight Sometimes it takes years for a stone cold heart to become softer as the Holy Spirit remolds it and shapes it as He desires This is what Elizabeth Nicole had experienced With that experience came much pain from the decisions that she had made This once faithful Christian who had given up everything to follow Jesus had gone back to Egypt forgetting her God and the promises He had given Over twenty years later Elizabeth went on a fast to seek God's face and see what He had to say and on Easter Sunday Testify A Call to Repentance was finished This book is a very personal journey that takes the author from bondage to faith and back to bondage but God did not give up on her He brought her close to Him again A
