

The book cover features a black and white portrait of Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a man with glasses and a receding hairline, wearing a dark suit and tie. He is resting his head on his right hand. The background of the cover is a solid, vibrant red. The title 'A BONHOEFFER LEGACY' is printed in large, bold, white, sans-serif capital letters, centered over the lower half of the portrait. Below the title, the subtitle 'Essays in Understanding' is written in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. At the bottom, the editor's name 'EDITED BY A. J. KLASSEN' is printed in a smaller, orange, sans-serif font. A small yellow tab is visible at the top edge of the book.

Bonhoeffer Themes Brought Into Focus William R. McDuffie, Pacifism, Just War, and Tyrannicide David M. Gides, 2012-03-02 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's perplexing and controversial shift from admitted pacifism to tyrannicide has been the source of scholarly and popular inspiration and criticism How could an admitted Christian pacifist be involved in a plot to assassinate a political figure Is there a way to understand and explain this phenomenon comprehensive enough to encompass all relevant data One that takes into account the nuances of Bonhoeffer's theology and all of the elements of his complex historical and personal contexts This study attempts to offer an explanation by linking Bonhoeffer's political thinking and action with his understanding of the church world relationship and by evaluating the changes in that thought action dyad as his life progressed What emerges is a portrait of a bold and visionary thinker and political agent whose church world theology while discontinuous is consistent enough to be authentic and yet flexible enough to meet the extraordinary challenges presented by Nazism and its intrusion into the churches Gides suggests that it is actually Bonhoeffer's malleable church world thinking that ultimately distinguishes him from his theological and ecclesial contemporaries and even from the mass of German church persons and citizenry it allowed him to confront evil by reaching beyond the constraints of traditional Lutheran thinking Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel,2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer s theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer s theology in a methodologically sound way He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer s work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco theology In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer s time He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer s theology can make

The Church for the World Jennifer McBride,2014-03-05 Drawing on the work of German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer Jennifer McBride constructs a new theology of public witness for American Protestant church communities based on the public expression of repentance and redemption

Becoming Simple and Wise Joshua A. Kaiser,2015-04-15 How does a Christian discern the will of God While this question lies at the heart of the Christian moral life religious communities struggle to articulate responses that balance simple faith and rational reflection Some characterize discernment as simple obedience to the commandments in Scripture others portray it as an exercise of human reason and conscience Dietrich Bonhoeffer the German theologian pastor and political conspirator who embodied a life of discernment amidst difficult circumstances in WWII Germany offers a compelling theological account of how to seek and respond to God s will By tracing Bonhoeffer s understanding of moral discernment throughout his writings and especially in his Ethics Joshua Kaiser demonstrates the importance of discernment for Bonhoeffer s vision of Christian ethics and explores how his view combines elements of simple faith and rational reflection While the results of the study will be significant for those interested in Bonhoeffer they will also be relevant to all who struggle along the path of Christian discipleship

Spirit and Sonship David A. Höhne,2016-03-09 This book weaves together an interpretation of Christian Scripture with a conversation between Colin Gunton and Dietrich Bonhoeffer concerning the role the Holy Spirit plays in shaping the person and work of Christ The result is a theological description of human personhood grounded in a sustained engagement with and critique of Gunton s theological description of particularity a topic central to all his thinking In the course of the conversation with Bonhoeffer the book also offers one of few broad assessments of his work as a systematic theologian In bringing together the work of two important modern theologians this book explores both the possibilities of theology generated from Christian Scripture and the central importance of the doctrines of Christ and the Trinity in understanding what it means to declare someone or something unique

You're Only Human Kelly M.

Kapic,2022-01-18 Christianity Today 2023 Book Award Winner Popular Theology Work Family Church Exercise Sleep The list of demands on our time seems to be never ending It can leave you feeling a little guilty like you should always be doing one more thing Rather than sharing better time management tips to squeeze more hours out of the day Kelly Kapic offers a better way to make peace with the fact that God didn't create us to do it all by exploring the theology behind seeing our human limitations as a gift rather than a deficiency laying out a path to holistic living with life giving relationships and meaningful contributions to the world freeing us from confusing our limitations with sin inviting us to rest in the joy and relief of knowing that God can use our limitations to foster freedom joy growth and community Readers will emerge better equipped to cultivate a life that fosters gratitude rest and faithful service to God The Cross of Reality H. Gaylon Barker,2015-09-01 The Cross of Reality investigates Bonhoeffer's interpretation and use of Luther's theology in shaping his Christology In this essay H Gaylon Barker uses the theology of the cross as a key to understanding the characteristic elements that make up Bonhoeffer's theology he also shows how Bonhoeffer's conversation with his teachers and contemporaries Karl Holl and Karl Barth in particular develops Bonhoeffer's thought was indeed radical and revolutionary but it was so precisely because of its adherence to the classical traditions of the church especially Luther's theologia crucis Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner,2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church's life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer's conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology The End Is Not Yet John W. de Gruchy,Ashley John Moyse,2017-10-15 The title of this book comes from Matthew's gospel You will hear of wars and rumors of wars see that you are not alarmed for this must take place but the end is not yet 24 6 8 This locates The End Is Not Yet within popular religious rhetoric about the end time and more sophisticated theological discourse on eschatology or Christian hope for a better world premised on faith in God But is such faith still justified And if so how are we to describe and embody it in the life of the world Liberating Faith Geoffrey B. Kelly,2002-12-11 Liberating Faith remains an effective introduction to the theology and spirituality of Dietrich Bonhoeffer After a brief biographical portrait of Bonhoeffer's adult life Kelly offers a thematic overview of Bonhoeffer's Christological theology with an emphasis on the sociality of Christ Other chapters focus on the liberation of faith which is essentially Bonhoeffer's theology of revelation that emerged from his own existential crisis regarding his own faith and an examination of his theology of the Church While Kelly draws heavily on Bonhoeffer's later writings like The Cost of Discipleship Ethics and especially Letters and Papers from Prison he also uses key texts spanning the entirety of Bonhoeffer's career to develop the critical ideas at the heart of Bonhoeffer's theology Therefore Liberating Faith does very well to set the stage for Bonhoeffer's overall theology

Dialogic Confession , In this landmark volume of contemporary communication theory Ronald C Arnett applies the metaphor of dialogic confession which enables historical moments to be addressed from a confessed standpoint and through a communicative lens to the works of German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer who pointed to an era of postmodern difference with his notion of a world come of age Arnett's interpretations of Bonhoeffer's life and scholarship in contention with Nazi dominance offer implications for a dialogic confession that engages the complexity of postmodern narrative contention Rooted in classical theory the field of communication ethics is abstract and arguably outmoded In Dialogic Confession Bonhoeffer's Rhetoric of Responsibility Arnett locates cross cultural and comparative anchors that not only bring legitimacy and relevance to the field but also develop a conceptual framework that will advance and inspire future scholarship

Keeping God's Silence Rachel Muers,2008-04-15 This ground breaking book provides a new perspective on Christian practices of silence An original theologically informed work written by a significant Quaker theologian Provides a new perspective on Christian practices of silence Considers the theological and ethical significance of these practices Relates silence listening and communication to major contemporary issues Takes forward theological engagement with feminist thought Contributes to ongoing research into the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer

For the Life of the World Robert J. Dean,2016-05-13 What is the church What is its mission in the world Modern Protestantism's inability to provide a clear answer to these seemingly simple questions has resulted in vast confusion amongst pastors about the nature of their calling and has left congregations languishing without a clear reason for existence Many of the voices and allegiances competing for the church's attention have rushed in to fill the void with the result that the church in modernity has frequently found itself captive to the prevailing culture Yet from within the belly of highly culturally accommodated churches both the German pastor theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the American theological ethicist Stanley Hauerwas were able to articulate compelling visions of churches freed from their cultural captivity in order to truly and freely serve God and neighbor Against the complex and confusing backdrops of Nazi Germany and late twentieth and early twenty first century America respectively Bonhoeffer and Hauerwas sought to recover the ethical and political character of the Christian faith through recalling the church back to the christological center of its faith Together they provide a rich set of complementary and at times mutually correcting resources for the contemporary church as it seeks to faithfully bear witness to Christ amidst the ruins of Christendom

Christ the Heart of Creation Rowan Williams,2018-09-06 In this wide ranging book Rowan Williams argues that what we say about Jesus Christ is key to understanding what Christian belief says about creator and creation overall Through detailed discussion of texts from the earliest centuries to the present day we are shown some of the various and subtle ways in which Christians have discovered in their reflections on Christ the possibility of a deeply affirmative approach to creation and a set of radical insights in ethics and politics as well. Throughout his life Rowan Williams has been deeply influenced by thinkers of the Eastern Christian tradition as well as Catholic and Anglican writers. This book draws on insights from Eastern Christianity from the Western Middle Ages and from Reformed thinkers from Calvin to Bonhoeffer as well as considering theological insights sparked by philosophers like Kierkegaard and Wittgenstein. Christ the Heart of Creation concerns fundamental issues for Christian belief and Williams tackles them head on; he writes with pellucid clarity and shows his gift for putting across what are inevitably complex ideas to a wide audience. The Soul of God Ray S.

Anderson, 2004-08-02 In this theological memoir Ray Anderson takes us on his own journey from the prairie to the pulpit and from the soul of a believer into the soul of a theologian. As a sequel to his earlier book The Soul of Ministry he shares with us the process by which his own spiritual hunger moved from uneasiness and unrest into a deeper sense of the soul of theology as exploration into the very soul of God. Part One In Part Two each chapter traces out the contours of a theology which sings as well as stings. After more than 40 years of ministry as pastor teacher and theologian Anderson presents a theological hermeneutic by which Scripture and human experience can be read on the same page. If reading this book produces astonishment and wonder at the depth and daring to which God's grace encounters and embraces us through Jesus Christ then that itself will lead us with awe and reverence to behold the soul of God. Communication and Community Ronald C. Arnett, 1986 Martin Buber's work suggests that real life begins with two individuals engaged in dialogue not just taking care of one's own needs as described in social Darwinism. Arnett argues that the end of the age of abundance demands that we give up the communicative strategies of the past and seek to work together in the midst of limited resources and an uncertain future. Today's situation calls for an unwavering commitment to Buber's narrow ridge concern for both self and community. Arnett illustrates the narrow ridge definition of interpersonal communication with rich examples. His vignettes demonstrate effective and ineffective approaches to human community. An effective approach he makes clear incorporates not only openness to others' points of view but also a willingness to be persuaded.
