HOW THE EXPERTS TASTE
Pour a small amount into a wine glass	Warm the oil by cupping the glass in one hand and covering the top with the other	Swirl for a minute or two, and then give it a smell	Now take a sip – breathe through your nose allowing the flavours to expand across your palate

Practising the art of tasting will help you to pick up the different flavours and smells of the olive oils in your cupboard. Look out for these flavours at home and when you're eating out – they all point to a high-quality oil, but which ones are you drawn to?
