A Camera In The Garden:

A Camera in the Garden of Eden Kevin Coleman, 2016-02-23 In the early twentieth century the Boston based United Fruit Company controlled the production distribution and marketing of bananas the most widely consumed fresh fruit in North America So great was the company's power that it challenged the sovereignty of the Latin American and Caribbean countries in which it operated giving rise to the notion of company dominated banana republics In A Camera in the Garden of Eden Kevin Coleman argues that the banana republic was an imperial constellation of images and practices that was checked and contested by ordinary Central Americans Drawing on a trove of images from four enormous visual archives and a wealth of internal company memos literary works immigration records and declassified US government telegrams Coleman explores how banana plantation workers women and peasants used photography to forge new ways of being while also visually asserting their rights as citizens He tells a dramatic story of the founding of the Honduran town of El Progreso where the United Fruit Company had one of its main divisional offices the rise of the company now known as Chiquita and a sixty nine day strike in which banana workers declared their independence from neocolonial domination In telling this story Coleman develops a new set of conceptual tools and methods for using images to open up fresh understandings of the past offering a model that is applicable far beyond this pathfinding study

The Garden, 1903 The Garden Tender's Cats L.A. Lockhart, 2025-05-02 When the widow Miriam Wheatley finds her dream home nestled in the woodland outskirts of the quaint town of Belliford Virginia all she wants is to buy the property as quickly as possible The ghosts of her deceased husband's life as an FBI agent have haunted her long enough She's ready to settle down somewhere quiet and the property's neglected gardens and feral kittens offer her the perfect peaceful project to dedicate her retirement to But as she wanders the property on her own her dreams of paws and petals are shattered by the peal of a rifle Who fired the shot Was it just an honest hunter as her real estate agent insists Or was someone trying to scare her away What is really hiding in the locked cellar and shed of the Sherwood estate The wisest thing would be for Miriam to leave Belliford and its secrets behind Clearly this quiet town is not what it appears to be and any timid gentle lady would not be able to unearth its secrets unscathed Thankfully Miriam is not what she appears to be either Beneath her soft smile she is a survivor with the persistence courage and compassion to see her through any adversity Miriam will not let herself be scared away She has found what she wants and no amount of fear or trickery will keep her from it So begins Miriam s journey through the dark currents of thievery fraud murder and betrayal that lurk beneath the Sherwood estate Yet as she discovers treasures in the dark will Miriam be able to resist her own voice of greed within Or will she simply be the latest caretaker to fall victim to the estate s suffocating weeds of deadly desire

The Winter Garden is published as Woman in the Shadows in the US The Well-Considered Garden Francis King,2008-09-12 In her 1915 work Mrs Francis King aka Louisa Yeomans King lays out the guidelines by which inexperienced gardeners can plan their own well considered gardens The Walled Garden Lawrence M. Friedman,Joanna L. Grossman,2022-04-11 Privacy in human history is a relatively recent concept Nobody had much privacy in the Middle Ages Even kings and queens lacked privacy it was an age when crowds watched a queen give birth and the king received visitors while on the chamber pot Technology and concepts of privacy grew up together as both friends and enemies For example the late 19th century invention of the candid camera made it possible for the first time to take someone s picture without that person s consent This fact was in the background of the classic article by Warren and Brandeis that launched the right of privacy Today we have smart phones with cameras selfies the Internet surveillance cameras and tools that can look through walls smell through walls see through walls Dangers to privacy have multiplied enormously and we have only just begin figuring how to handle the change This book is timely as our basic understandings of privacy are challenged by modern technology changing social mores and evolving legal understandings that both reflect and reinforce underlying changes in society It is likely to be of interest to graduate and undergraduate students scholars and potentially other professionals with an interest in law and social norms Garden Photography Workshop Andrea Jones,2025-05-01 Learn to take better garden photos One of the most rewarding aspects of gardening is sharing its beauty both physically with those who visit and virtually with those who only see it on a screen But capturing a garden s true essence is difficult and often the moments worth sharing are ephemeral In The Garden Photography Workshop internationally known garden photographer Andrea Jones shares the trade secrets that make her photos sing You ll learn the basic photography skills and tips on using a range of camera equipment Profiles of real gardens from around the world exemplify the most common problems a photographer can face like harsh light wet weather and cramped spaces along with advice and techniques for addressing specific concerns We live in a photo driven world and this helpful guide is a complete tutorial for anyone who wants that world to be filled with beautiful images of gardens and plants The Garden in the Machine Scott MacDonald,2001-12-18 The Garden in the Machine explores the evocations of place and particularly American place that have become so central to the representational and narrative strategies of alternative and mainstream film and video Scott MacDonald contextualizes his discussion with a wide ranging and deeply informed analysis of the depiction of place in nineteenth and twentieth century literature painting and photography Accessible and engaging this book examines the manner in which these films represent nature and landscape in particular and location in general. It offers us both new readings of the films under consideration and an expanded sense of modern film history. Among the many antecedents to the films and videos discussed here are Thomas Cole's landscape painting, Thoreau's Walden, Olmsted and Vaux's Central Park, and Eadweard Muybridge's panoramic photographs of San Francisco. MacDonald analyzes the work of many accomplished avant-garde filmmakers: Kenneth Anger, Bruce Baillie, James Benning, Stan Brakhage, Nathaniel Dorsky, Hollis Frampton, Ernie Gehr, Larry Gottheim, Robert Huot, Peter Hutton, Marjorie Keller, Rose Lowder, Marie Menken, J. J. Murphy, Andrew Noren, Pat O'Neill, Leighton Pierce, Carolee Schneemann, and Chick Strand. He also examines a variety of recent commercial feature films as well as independent experiments in documentary and such contributions to independent video history as George Kuchar's Weather Diaries and Ellen Spiro's Roam Sweet Home. MacDonald reveals the spiritual underpinnings of these works and shows how issues of race, ethnicity, gender, and class are conveyed as filmmakers attempt to discover forms of Edenic serenity within the Machine of modern society. Both personal and scholarly, The Garden in the Machine will be an invaluable resource for those interested in investigating and experiencing a broader spectrum of cinema in their teaching, in their research, and in their lives.
