A fun fanciful and even informative history of felines as revealed by a very learned tabby with a knack for hunting down facts. People Since the dawn of civilization felines have prowled alongside mankind as they expanded their territory and spread the myth of human greatness. And today cats are peddled on social media as silly creatures here to amuse humans with their antics. But this is an absurd self centered fantasy. The true history of felines is one of heroism love tragedy sacrifice and gravitas. Not entirely convinced. Well get ready because Baba the Cat is here to set the record straight. Spanning almost every continent and thousands yes thousands of years Baba's complex story of feline survival presents readers with a diverse cast of cats long forgotten from her prehistoric feline ancestors and the ancient Egyptian cat goddess Bastet to the daring mariners at the height of oceanic discovery key intellectuals in the Enlightenment period revered heroes from World Wars I and II and the infamous American tabbies. Baba a talented model in addition to a scholar goes beyond surface level scratches pairing her freshly unearthed research with a series of stunning costume portraits to bring history to life. A paws on journey through the feline hall of fame with in depth research and four legged testaments that will make you rethink who defines history. A Cat's Tale is a one of a kind chronicle that introduces readers to the illustrious ancestors of their closest companions and shows once and for all that cats know exactly what they're doing. JOURNEY HOME A CAT'S TALE is a story based upon the actual life of a cat found abandoned in a dumpster left to die. Born in a small town on the coast of Maine an unpretentious cat named Patches encounters life changing experiences during his first two years. Discarded by an uncaring owner and left homeless without food or shelter he wanders the streets to piece his life back together. Along the way he discovers new friends like Chester a relocated cat from New York City and Buster a neighborhood stray who teaches him how to fend for himself. Late one night during a violent blizzard a series of events abruptly changes his life once again after he saves Buster from a fire and then returns to the garbage dumpster for a local diner to seek shelter and food. As he jumps into the dumpster his leg is ensnared by the steel jaws of a leg trap. He feels the sharp razor like teeth cut into him and the fear of dying or losing his foot becomes reality. Like the doleful cry of an incessant wind memories of his past and unanswered questions about his father's abandonment engulf his thoughts. Will he discover what has become of his siblings find a new home and ever understand his father's message and why he abandoned him. Will he survive the cold darkness and discover once again a path that leads to the understanding he seeks.
