David Stouck

A Bird In The House New Canadian Library No 96:

Major Canadian Authors David Stouck, 1988-01-01 Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country. This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm. Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies, Margaret Laurence, Sinclair Ross, and Alice Munro. The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood, updates the text, and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors.

Margaret Laurence Donez Xiques, 2005-09-24 Margaret Laurence The Making of a Writer is an engaging narrative that contains new and important findings about Laurence's life and career. This biography reveals the challenges, successes, and failures of the long apprenticeship that preceded the publication of The Stone Angel, Laurence's first commercially successful novel. Donez Xiques demonstrates the importance of Margaret Laurence's early work as a journalist in her development as a writer and covers her return to Canada from Africa in the late 1950s. She details the significance of Laurence's Vancouver years as well as the challenges of her year in London prior to settling at Elm Cottage in Buckinghamshire when Laurence stood on the verge of success. The Margaret Laurence known to most people is a public figure of the 1960s and 1970s, matriarchal, matronly, and accomplished. The story of her early years in the harsh setting of the Canadian Prairies during the 1930s, years of drought and the Great Depression, and of her African years has never before been chronicled with the thoroughness and vividness that Xiques provides for the reader. Appended to this powerful new biography is a short story by Margaret Laurence that has never before been published and two other stories that have not been widely available. They indicate the range of her concerns and show a marked departure from her fiction in The Tomorrow Tamer and Other Stories and A Bird in the House. Readers will benefit from the extensive research in this full and vibrant portrait of one of the most revered writers of twentieth-century Canadian literature. Canadiana, 1984

Essays on Canadian Writing, 1984

The Annotated Bibliography of Canada's Major Authors Robert Lecker, Jack David, 1979 Volume 1 in the Bibliography of Canada's Major Authors series which brings together primary and secondary material written by some of Canada's most preeminent literary figures. This volume includes annotated bibliographies on Margaret Atwood, Margaret Laurence, Hugh MacLennan, Mordecai Richler, and Gabrielle Roy.

Alien Heart Lyall Powers, 2012-11-02 Today, almost two decades after her death, Margaret Laurence remains one of Canada's best-known and most beloved writers. Twice winner of the Governor General's Award for fiction, she was, as the late William French wrote, more profoundly admired than any other Canadian novelist of her generation. Lyall Powers is both a respected scholar of literature and a lifelong friend of Laurence's, having met her when they were students together at Winnipeg's United College in the 1940s. Alien Heart is the first full-length biography of Margaret that combines personal knowledge and insights about Laurence with a study of her work which often paralleled the events and concerns in her own life. Drawing on letters, personal correspondence journals and interviews Lyall Powers discusses the struggles and triumphs Laurence experienced in her efforts to understand herself in the roles of writer wife mother and public figure He portrays a deeply compassionate and courageous woman who yet felt troubled by conflicting demands While Laurence s work is not directly autobiographical Powers illustrates how her writing expressed many of the same dilemmas and how the resolution her characters achieved in the novels and stories had an impact on Laurence s own life Powers provides an in depth analysis of all Laurence s work including the early African essays fiction and translations and her books for children as well as the beloved Manawaka fiction The study clearly shows the progression and expression of Laurence as a writer of great humanity and conscience
