A Celibate Way Of Loving Letters To The Beloved:

A Celibate Way of Loving Gabriel M. Harty, 2005 Observations on Priestly celibacy No quote Review for Religious The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index, 2006 The Tablet, 1879 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Wives of Catholic Clergy Joseph Henry Fichter, 1992 The Catholic women about whom we know the least historically were the wives of the clergy starting with the Apostles bishops presbyters and deacons of early Christianity Even though prelates and priests continued for more than a thousand years to marry and to father children we know little or nothing about the wives whose life experience and even their names have been erased from history Now they are coming back into prominence mainly as the wives of noncanonical priests some as wives of convert Episcopal priests and many as the wives of ordained permanent deacons In America as elsewhere the role and status of Catholic women are changing in significant directions Their official acceptance by the institutional Church helps to offset traditional sexism and clericalism The Letters of Charlotte Brontë: 1848-1851 Charlotte Brontë, 1995 In this volume we share Charlotte Brontë's experience for four crucial years The success of Jane Eyre and the strange power of Wuthering Heights made the brothers Bell the universal theme of conversation but privately the family endured the deaths of Branwell Brontë in September and Emily in December 1848 followed by Anne's in May 1849 Haunted by the fear that she also would succumb Charlotte found salvation in writing Shirley published in October 1849 and comfort in her friendship and correspondence with Ellen Nussey with her publishers especially George Smith with Mrs Gaskell and for a time Harriet Martineau She may also have received a proposal of marriage from Smith Edler's manager James Taylor The Letters of Gustave Flaubert: 1857-1880 Gustave Flaubert, 1980 An acknowledged master of translation Francis Steegmuller has given us by far the most generous and varied selection of Flaubert's letters in English He presents these with an engrossing narrative that places them in the context of the writer's life and times Letters to the Editor That Were Never Published Alex Caemmerer Jr., 2011-12-07 Over the course of the last ten years Dr Alex Caemmerer has written well over one hundred letters to the editors of the New York Times the Record of Bergen County New Jersey and Psychiatric News a journal aimed at psychiatrists and other behavioral health providers The letters arranged in chapters represent his response to articles on a variety of topics including psychiatry psychoanalysis religion priests and bishops depression violence homosexuality and miscellaneous subjects of general interest He was also inspired to write in on a variety of subjects including the business of Big Money the American automobile and its role in American culture the symbolic meanings and needs the automobile satisfies in one's psychology and the practice of psychiatry including a few examples of what brings one to a psychiatrist He shared his opinions on business newscasters and their use of language specifically the words and phrases aimed at scaring the public with frightening metaphors Over the decades of his career Dr Caemmerer has been a witty observer and commentator on how people and society are changing and not always for the betterment of either These letters capture his unique perspective and his creative solutions to get things back on track Quartet Leah Broad, 2023-02-28 WINNER OF THE ROYAL PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY STORYTELLING AWARD The lives loves adventures and trailblazing musical careers of four extraordinary women from a stunning debut biographer Fabulous Sunday Times A rare gift Financial Times Passionate Vivid Timely Telegraph Readable and inspiring Guardian Compelling Ambitious Poignant Spectator Magnificent Kate Mosse Riveting Antonia Fraser A breath of fresh air Kate Molleson Fascinating Alexandra Harris Wonderful Claire Tomalin Splendid Miranda Seymour Remarkable Fiona Maddocks Pioneering Andrew Motion Brilliant Helen Pankhurst Ethel Smyth b 1858 Famed for her operas this trailblazing queer Victorian composer was a larger than life socialite intrepid traveller and committed Suffragette Rebecca Clarke b 1886 This talented violist and Pre Raphaelite beauty was one of the first women ever hired by a professional orchestra later celebrated for her modernist experimentation Dorothy Howell b 1898 A prodigy who shot to fame at the 1919 Proms her reputation as the English Strauss never dented her modesty on retirement she tended Elgar's grave alone Doreen Carwithen b 1922 One of Britain's first woman film composers who scored Elizabeth II's coronation film her success hid a 20 year affair with her married composition tutor In their time these women were celebrities They composed some of the century's most popular music and pioneered creative careers but today they are ghostly presences surviving only as muses and footnotes to male contemporaries like Elgar Vaughan Williams and Britten until now Leah Broad's magnificent group biography resurrects these forgotten voices recounting lives of rebellion heartbreak and ambition and celebrating their musical masterpieces Lighting up a panoramic sweep of British history over two World Wars Quartet revolutionises the canon forever SHORTLISTED FOR THE SLIGHTLY FOXED BEST FIRST BIOGRAPHY PRIZE 2023 Love and the Genders Erik von Kuehnelt-Leddihn, 2019-12-13 Love and the Genders deals with the four forms of love Eros the love between the sexes the affections between family members friendship with the accent between the sexes and charity This scholarly book 60% elaborate footnotes is based on the author's German book Das Raetsel Liebe The Engima of Love Vienna Herold 1975 All forms of love tend toward union The rapist does not love and masturbation needs no partner The book has profound cultural and even political implications What are the qualities and qualifications of the sexes their identities and specific roles Men are not superior to women and vice versa but they are radically different and the biological research in recent years has made a number of discoveries We only know since 1958 for certain that every cell in the male body carries an additional element the Y but brain research has proven that the sexual differences are not only hormonal known for a long time but are also in the brain Thus men and women are in no way interchangeable They are not made to compete Their differences are rather statistical than personal and there are situations in which they can or must substitute for each other Thus queens might have to rule and men might have occasionally to tend babies although they cannot nurse them A high culture is ordered such that the sexes genders might get their fulfillment and naturally they must feel affection for each other The point of view of this book is Christian which includes a Hebrew

background It is not specifically Catholic and does not deal directly with sexual ethics Contraception is a sexual problem abortion is obviously plain murder Homosexuality is mentioned a bit more broadly Misandry and misogyny are referenced in the North American and European situation Friendship not sex or Eros is the most important element in marriage If one marries can the partner be a friend for a lifetime Fidelity belongs psychologically to friendship not to Eros or sex What about the political aspect of the love the interest the enthusiasm for otherness Leftists are identitarians This book with its scope and documentation is quite unique It deals basically with the crisis of our time and age The Living Church ,1995
