

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
MASTER CHIEF PETTY OFFICER OF THE NAVY

MCPON's 2012-2013 CPO 365 Guidance

CPO 365 started anew September 17, 2012. We have now authored two compelling chapters in a formidable narrative that defines the journey from First Class Petty Officer (FCPO) to the Chiefs' Mess and energizes the strength intrinsic to our gold fouled anchors. This is your success story, brought to life by creatively blending 119 years of prominent tradition with a passionate commitment to provide the leadership our Sailors demand and should expect from the Chief Petty Officers' Mess. We are all beneficiaries of this evolving process to Zero in on Excellence... First Classes, Chiefs, the Wardroom, our Total Force ... and have a vital stake in keeping it on an upward trajectory. Necessity and nature dictate that we constantly breathe new life into it if we want the practice to remain relevant and to effectively support the CNO's Sailing Directions and his tenets of warfighting first, operating forward and being ready.

Messes spanning the globe have infused CPO 365 with their own unique spirit. As CPOs move between duty stations, that spirit becomes transient and takes root in distant places. Good ideas born in Pohang are suddenly part of the plan in Pensacola, and a training curriculum devised in Norfolk takes center stage in Naples. Regardless of geographic coordinates, it is open minds and focused objectives that are the common denominators of enduring progress. Vertical and horizontal collaboration among counterparts also has phenomenal potential in dispersing best practices. It is okay, even encouraged, to share how your Messes are keeping the fire alive for 12 months and to emulate what others are doing that might work well inside our own lifelines.

My guidance for CPO 365 will seem familiar in many respects but fundamentally different in others. The process is gaining tangible traction and growing in scope. The ingenuity of our Chiefs in fusing mission requirements with opportunities to conduct productive training will keep us methodically moving in the right direction. I want to reiterate the significance of instilling fundamentals like good order and discipline, our Core Values and the Navy Ethos early on, and of reinforcing them throughout the year with practical application. Additionally, look for occasions to incorporate interaction with the Wardroom. Many officers I've met expressed their enthusiasm for enhancing the relationship between our communities. We should leverage every chance to do so as these are the future flag officers, commanding officers and department heads who will take our Fleet over the horizon.

Effective immediately, this guidance and our process will be called CPO 365 - and CPO 365 only. "Induction" is hereby officially and respectfully sundowned. CPO 365 will consist of two phases. Phase 1 starts September 17 and concludes when the NAVADMIN announcing CPO selection results is released. All FCPOs will participate throughout the duration of Phase 1 regardless of whether they are board-eligible or not.
