The Representation of the Relationship between Center and Periphery in the Contemporary Novel Ruth Amar, Françoise Saquer-Sabin, 2018-10-15 This collection of essays offers a comparative perspective on different forms of representation of social hybridity in contemporary novels through various cultural and linguistic lenses It explores the various subcategories of their interdependent relationships including power and domination between hegemony and marginality The book revolves around five axes namely writing strategies and reterritorialization marginality and intermediary spaces revisited urban spaces when periphery becomes center and the modality of confrontation and construction of identity It focuses on the identification and classification of spaces in order to understand their function in relation to the thematic strategy of the novel Its main objective is identifying the textual representation of the challenge of center and periphery as well as these concepts role and significance in diegesis Thus new light is shed on the subject and on the contemporary novel as a whole

Humble Theory Dorothy Noyes, 2016-10-03 A collection of fifteen essays exploring what folklore is its history and how it all connects to the world Celebrated folklorist Dorothy Noyes offers an unforgettable glimpse of her craft and the many ways it matters Folklore is the dirty linen of modernity carrying the traces of working bodies and the worlds they live in It is necessary but embarrassing not easily blanché and made respectable for public view although sometimes this display is deemed useful The place of folklore studies among modern academic disciplines has accordingly been marginal and precarious yet folklore studies are foundational and persistent Long engaged with all that escapes the gaze of grand theory and grand narratives folklorists have followed the lead of the people whose practices they study They attend to local economies of meaning they examine the challenge of making room for maneuver within circumstances one does not control Incisive and wide ranging the fifteen essays in this book chronicle the humble theory of both folk and folklorist as interacting perspectives on social life in the modern Western world Tying folklore to larger trends in Western cultural thought leaving behind narrow concerns with genre or fossilized expressive forms Humble Theory showcases the potential of folkloristics to contribute meaningfully to interdisciplinary conversations about culture Journal of Folklore Research Humble Theory is a big book From a small scholarly field it announces the most substantial far seeing insights into the world s social life By writing it Noyes becomes the kind of public intellectual the United States needs Journal of American Folklore

Vampire Legends in Contemporary American Culture William Patrick Day, 2021-02-15 While vampire stories have been part of popular culture since the beginning of the nineteenth century it has been in recent decades that they have become a central part of American culture Vampire Legends in Contemporary American Culture looks at how vampire stories from Bram Stoker s Dracula to Blacula from Bela Lugosi s films to Love at First Bite have become part of our ongoing debate about what it means to be human William Patrick Day looks at how writers and filmmakers as diverse as Anne Rice and Andy Warhol present the vampire as an archetype of human identity as well as how many post modern vampire stories reflect our fear and attraction to stories of addiction and violence He argues that contemporary stories use the character of Dracula to explore modern values and that stories of vampire slayers such as the popular television series Buffy the Vampire Slayer integrate current feminist ideas and the image of the Vietnam veteran into a new heroic version of the vampire story

Challenging Realities: Magic Realism in Contemporary American Women's Fiction M. Ruth Noriega Sánchez, 2011-11-28 Les arrels del realisme màgic en els escrits de Borges i altres autors d'Amèrica Llatina han estat mplaument reconeguts i ben documentades produint una s'rie d'estudis crítics molts dels quals figuren en la bibliografia d'aquest treball Dins d'aquest marc aquest llibre presenta als lectors una varietat d'escriptors de grups ètnics conegudes i menys conegudes i les col·loca en un context literari en el que es tracten tant a nivell individual com a escriptors així com a nivell col·lectiu com a part d'un moviment artístic més ampli Aquest llibre és el resultat del treball realitzat a les universitats de Sheffield i la de València i representa una valuosa investigació i una important contribució als estudis literaris

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors' incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature
