manifests nothing much more than a supine acquiescence in long established communal values Hallen renders a great service to African philosophy Kwasi Wiredu In Yoruba culture morality and moral values are intimately linked to aesthetics The purest expression of beauty at least for human beings is to possess good moral character But how is moral character judged How do actions and especially words reveal good moral character in a culture that is still significantly based on oral tradition In this original and intimate look at Yoruba culture Barry Hallen asks the Yoruba onisegun the wisest and most accomplished herbalists or traditional healers individuals justly reputed to be well versed in Yoruba thought and expression what it means to be good and beautiful Posing as an outsider wanting to gain understanding of how to speak Yoruba correctly Hallen engages the onisegun and has them explain the subtleties and intricacies of Yoruba language use and the philosophy behind particular word choices Their instructions reveal a striking and profound depiction of Yoruba aesthetic and ethical thought The detailed interpretations of everyday language that Hallen supplies challenge prevailing Western views that African thought is nothing more than acquiescence to long established religious or communal values The philosophy of ordinary language reveals that moral reflection is indeed individual and that evaluations of action and character take place on the basis of clearly and logically delineated criteria With the onisegun as his guides Hallen identifies the priorities of Yoruba philosophy and culture through everyday expression and shows that there are rational pathways to both truth and beauty Barry Hallen has taught philosophy at the Obafemi Awolowo University formerly University of Ife in Nigeria He is a Fellow at the W E B DuBois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and Visiting Professor of Philosophy at Morehouse College He is coauthor with J Olubi Sodipo of Knowledge Belief and Witchcraft Analytic Experiments in African Philosophy Contents Ordinary Language and African Philosophy Moral Epistemology Me My Self and My Destiny The Good and the Bad The Beautiful Rationality Individuality Secularity and the Proverbial Appendix of Yoruba Language Quotations Glossary of Yoruba Terms Antinomies of Art and Culture Okwui Enwezor, Nancy Condee, Terry Smith, 2009-01-16

Captive Cosmopolitans Mary E. Hicks, 2024-11-13 From the bustling ports of Lisbon to the coastal inlets of the Bight of Benin to the vibrant waterways of Bahia Black mariners were integral to every space of the commercial South Atlantic Navigating this kaleidoscopic world required a remarkable cosmopolitanism the chameleonlike ability to adapt to new surroundings by developing sophisticated medicinal linguistic and navigational knowledge Mary E Hicks shows how Portuguese slaving ship captains harnessed and exploited this hybridity to expand their own traffic in human bondage At the same time she reveals how enslaved and free Black mariners capitalized on their shipboard positions and cosmopolitan expertise to participate in small scale commodity trading on the very coasts where they themselves had been traded as commodities reshaping societies and cultures on both sides of the Atlantic Indeed as Hicks argues the Bahian slave trade was ruthlessly effective because its uniquely decentralized structure so effectively incorporated the desires and financial strategies of the very people enslaved by it Yet taking advantage of such fraught economic opportunities ultimately enabled many enslaved Black mariners to purchase their freedom And in some cases they became independent transatlantic slave traders themselves Hicks thus explores the central paradox that defined the lives of the captive cosmopolitans and in doing so reveals a new history of South Atlantic slavery centered on subaltern commercial and cultural exchange Disciplinary

Decadence Lewis R. Gordon, 2015-12-03 In this book philosopher and social critic Lewis Gordon explores the ossification of disciplines which he calls disciplinary decadence In response he offers a theory of what he calls a teleological suspension of disciplinarity in which he encourages scholars and lay intellectuals to pay attention to the openness of ideas and purposes on which their disciplines were born Gordon builds his case through discussions of philosophy of education problems of secularization in religious thought obligations across generations notions of invention in the study of ideas decadence in development colonial epistemologies and the quest for a genuine postcolonial language These topics are examined with the underlying diagnosis of the present political and academic environment as one in which it is indecent to think Reclaim Association Aware, 2024-07-01 These proceedings emerge from the symposium Reclaim Narratives of African Women Artists organised by AWARE Archives of Women Artists Research and Exhibitions in partnership with the cole du Louvre as part of the Africa2020 Season They bring together research on the practices and trajectories of women from various African countries spanning from modernist artists to independence activists and contemporary voices While African women artists have long received little recognition this publication seeks to fill some of the gaps and examine the patterns underlying these dynamics In doing so it aims to contribute to the revalorisation of African women artists role as well as to broader reflections on the mechanisms of knowledge production in cultural history With texts by 3Points Dorothy Akpene Amenuke Alice Korkor Ebeheakey Bernard Akoi Jackson Ruth Colette Afane Belinga Nancy Dantas N Gon Fall Nadine Hounkpatin Sule Ameh James Gladys Kalichini Nadira Laggoun Perrin Lathrop with Ndidi Dike Karen E Milbourne Amandine Nana Sonia Recasens Maha Tazi and Rachida Triki African Arts ,2002 A Discursive Bazaar C.
