Contract Law Palgrave Law Masters:

European Contract Law Bénédicte Fauvarque-Cosson, Denis Mazeaud, 2009-04-27 The Association Henri Capitant des Amis de la Culture Juridique Française and the Société de législation comparée joined the academic network on European Contract Law in 2005 to work on the elaboration of a common terminology and on guiding principles as well as to propose a revised version of the Principles of European Contract Law PECL The results of this work were sent to the European Commission and have already been published in French The English translation is now being published by Sellier Elp This work could contribute to the wider European project The part on the guiding principles could be a component of the CFR in the form of black letter model rules or recitals The part on terminology is in itself useful for the elaboration of the final various linguistic versions of the CFR It finds its place within the materials which will accompany the model rules Last but by no means least the revised version of the PECL should be considered by the European institutions as an alternative set of model rules on contract law

Contract Law, 2000

Global Contract Law in the Middle East and North Africa Mohamed Ismail, 2024-08-01 This book comprehensively covers the interplay between cultural and legal globalization and the impact this has on contract law with a particular focus on state contracts within the MENA region The book discusses the roles assumed by Supreme Courts in Egypt and MENA countries in creating unified principles of international contract law in states contracts which are consistent with international commercial contracts principles It makes a powerful argument for further harmonization of contract law in the area and how this can be achieved The book forms a case study of how international harmonization can be achieved through a number of routes such as codification digitalization of processes and contracts private public arbitration and further use of international instruments It also considers the implications of comparative European law convention law and other legal domains particularly international standards on contract law in the MENA region The book suggests how international legal standards can be integrated within contract law and how a harmonious contract law framework can thus be achieved Through analyzing ICSID case law the book argues that unification of contract law principles in the MENA region is a considerable step towards achieving legitimate expectations of foreign investors It argues further that global contract law is underway The book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of international contract law public law and international law in Egypt and MENA countries
