The CIA and Third Force Movements in China during the Early Cold War Roger B. Jeans, 2017-11-27 When the Chinese Communists defeated the Chinese Nationalists and occupied the mainland in 1949 1950 U S policymakers were confronted with a dilemma Disgusted by the corruption and more importantly failure of Chiang Kai shek s Nationalist armies and party and repelled by the Communists revolutionary actions and violent class warfare in the early 1950s the U S government placed its hopes in a Chinese third force While the U S State Department reported on third forces the CIA launched a two prong effort to actively support these groups with money advisors and arms In Japan Okinawa and Saipan the agency trained third force troops at CIA bases The Chinese commander of these soldiers was former high ranking Nationalist General Cai Wenzhi He and his colleagues organized a political group the Free China Movement His troops received parachute training as well as other types of combat and intelligence instruction at agency bases Subsequently several missions were dispatched to Manchuria the Korean War was raging then and South China All were failures and the Chinese third force agents were killed or imprisoned With the end of the Korean War the Americans terminated this armed third force movement with the Nationalists on Taiwan taking in some of its soldiers while others moved to Hong Kong The Americans flew Cai to Washington where he took a job with the Department of Defense The second prong of the CIA s effort was in Hong Kong The agency financially supported and advised the creation of a third force organization called the Fighting League for Chinese Freedom and Democracy It also funded several third force periodicals Created in 1951 and 1952 in 1953 and 1954 the CIA ended its financial support As a consequence of this as well as factionalism within the group in 1954 the League collapsed and its leaders scattered to the four winds At the end even the term third force was discredited and replaced by new force Finally in the early 1950s the CIA backed as a third force candidate a Vietnamese general With his assassination in May 1955 however that effort also came to naught

The Forces of Progress Kobus Van Der Zel, 2011-09-16 A journey in search of the primary forces that either fuel or destroy progress in companies today Scientists changed our world by proving that the complex world of physics is ruled by only a few forces which obey simple Laws This allowed a quantum leap in our progress In this business novel an Eastern woman teams up with a Western turnaround guy to master the forces that are limiting their progress in business They set their aim as high as the imagination will allow For their traditional products company to achieve a Viable Vision to turn its sales into its net profits in 4 years and To encourage their people to escape from the rat race by becoming millionaires free to pursue their real purpose in life They use ancient Laws and wisdoms to defeat the forces that stand in their way Is it possible that a traditional business is also ruled by a few distinct forces which could be mastered to allow for a quantum leap in the performance of the business and its people

Three Block War Matt Zeigler, 2004 U S Marine Corps General Charles C Krulak predicted in the 1990s that 21st Century Warfare would be a multifaceted endeavor fought primarily on urban terrain He defined it as Three Block War The former Commandant s foresight was proven correct in the spring of 2003 during Gulf War II against Iraq Block I Humanitarian Aid After three decades of Saddam Baath Party rule and three wars the Iraqi people would need everything from food water and medical aid to a new justice system Block II Peacekeeping Operations Once Saddam was defeated Marines would contend with infighting amongst various religious and ethnic groups Block III Combat In small towns and big cities throughout Iraq Marines engaged Iraqi Army Republican Guard forces in full scale battles including tank and artillery duels with F 18 Harrier and Super Cobra gunship close air support They d also confront asymmetrical guerilla forces Iraq was also a Mecca for terrorists foreign and domestic Battles at Baghdad Nasiriyah Umm Qasr Diwanayah and elsewhere made Gulf War II a grunt s war A Shau Jay Phillips,2021-05-11 Nestled in Vietnam s Thua Thien Province west of the city of Hue and bordering Laos the narrow 40 kilometer long A Shau Valley situated between densely forested mountain ranges witnessed prolonged campaigning throughout the Vietnam War and served as a hub of the Communist supply network as well as a key point of access to South Vietnam Drawing upon an impressive array of archival materials this deeply researched book offers the first comprehensive account of operations and battles that transpired there during the war coupled with a trenchant analysis of the American failure to wrest control of the Valley despite years of commitment of troops and resources and how that failure contributed to the final outcome of the war In so doing it not only sheds light on where military tactics and strategy devised by American leaders went awry but also traces the extraordinary acts of heroism on the part of American soldiers many of whom lost their lives fighting the North Vietnamese in this hostile forbidding terrain This book which fills a gap in the historiography of the Vietnam War will appeal to scholars seeking to enhance their understanding of major events and turning points in the war as well as to students of military history and strategy United States Marine Reconnaissance in the Vietnam War Leo J.
