Reference Guide to Writing Across the Curriculum Charles Bazerman, 2005 This reference guide traces the Writing Across the Curriculum movement from its origins in British secondary education through its flourishing in American higher education and extension to American primary and secondary education Assessing and Improving Student Writing in College Barbara E. Walvoord, 2014-07-07 Step by step guidance for shaping better writers while keeping faculty workloads manageable Effective communication is a critical skill for many academic disciplines and careers and so colleges and universities and their faculty members are rightfully committed to improving student writing across the curriculum Guiding and assessing student writing in classrooms general education and departments takes knowledge planning and persistence but it can be done effectively and efficiently Written in the concise accessible style Barbara Walvoord is known for Assessing and Improving Student Writing in College A Guide for Institutions General Education Departments and Classrooms offers administrators program chairs general education leaders and classroom instructors the guidance they need The book provides concrete suggestions for how to Articulate goals for student writing Measure student writing Improve student writing Document that improvement The book begins by addressing four basic concepts what we mean by writing what we mean by good writing how students learn to write and the purposes of assessment Next Walvoord explains the various approaches and methods for assessing writing urging a combination of them adapted to the institution's purposes and political context After this introduction successive chapters offer realistic practical advice to institution wide and general education leaders department members and classroom instructors Walvoord addresses issues such as how to engage faculty

how to use rubrics how to aggregate assessment information at the department and institutional levels and how to report assessment information to accreditors The chapter for classroom instructors offers practical suggestions how to add more writing to a course without substantially increasing the grading load how to construct writing assignments how to make grading and responding more effective and time efficient how to address grammar and punctuation and how to support students whose native language is not English The book also includes four helpful appendices a taxonomy of Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and Writing in the Disciplines WID programs sample outlines for faculty development workshops a student survey on teaching methods instructors can use to inform their choices in the classroom and a student self check cover sheet designed to help students take ownership of their own learning and responsibility for turning in complete correct assignments Practical step by step guidance for each point in the assessment and improvement process creates a cohesive institution wide system that keeps students faculty and administrators on the same page

Rhetorical Strategies and Genre Conventions in Literary Studies Laura Wilder, 2012-05-31 Laura Wilder fills a gap in the scholarship on writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum with this thorough study of the intersections between scholarly literary criticism and undergraduate writing in introductory literature courses Rhetorical Strategies and Genre Conventions in Literary Studies is the first examination of rhetorical practice in the research and teaching of literary study and a detailed assessment of the ethics and efficacy of explicit instruction in the rhetorical strategies and genre conventions of the discipline Using rhetorical analysis ethnographic observation and individual interviews Wilder demonstrates how rhetorical conventions play a central although largely tacit role in the teaching of literature and the evaluation of student writing Wilder follows a group of literature majors and details their experiences Some students received experimental explicit instruction in the special topoi while others received more traditional implicit instruction Arguing explicit instruction in disciplinary conventions has the potential to help underprepared students Wilder explores how this kind of instruction may be incorporated into literature courses without being overly reductive Taking into consideration student perspectives Wilder makes a bold case for expanding the focus of research in writing in the disciplines and writing across the curriculum in order to grasp the full complexity of disciplinary discourse

Assignments across the Curriculum Dan Melzer, 2014-05-15 In Assignments across the Curriculum Dan Melzer analyzes the rhetorical features and genres of writing assignments through the writing to learn and writing in the disciplines perspectives Presenting the results of his study of 2 101 writing assignments from undergraduate courses in the natural sciences social sciences business and humanities in 100 postsecondary institutions in the United States Assignments across the Curriculum is unique in its cross institutional breadth and its focus on writing assignments The results provide a panoramic view of college writing in the United States Melzer's framework begins with the rhetorical situations of the assignments the purposes and audiences and broadens to include the assignments genres and discourse community contexts Among his conclusions is that courses connected to a writing across the curriculum WAC initiative ask students to write more often in a greater variety of genres and for a greater variety of purposes and audiences than non WAC courses do making a compelling case for the influence of the WAC movement Melzer's work also reveals patterns in the rhetorical situations genres and discourse communities of college writing in the United States These larger patterns are of interest to WAC practitioners working with faculty across disciplines to writing center coordinators and tutors working with students who bring assignments from a variety of fields to composition program administrators to first year writing instructors interested in preparing students for college writing and to high school teachers attempting to bridge the gap between high school and college writing

Creative Composition Danita Berg, Lori A. May, 2015 This book brings together contemporary authors and well respected creative writing instructors and theorists to explore ways creativity in composition may be encouraged in student writers The question in this anthology is not Can writing be taught but How can we inspire students to embrace the creative process no matter what they write

Pedagogical Perspectives on Cognition and Writing J. Michael Rifenburg, Duane Roen, 2021-05-11 Pedagogical Perspectives on Cognition and Writing addresses a scholarly audience in writing studies specifically scholars and teachers of writing writing program administrators and writing center scholars and administrators Chapters focus on the place of cognition in threshold concepts teaching for transfer rhetorical theory trauma theory genre writing centers community writing and applications of the Framework for Success in Postsecondary Writing The 1980s witnessed a growing interest in writing studies on cognitive approaches to studying and teaching college level writing While some would argue this interest was simply of a moment we argue that cognitive theories still have great influence in writing studies and have substantial potential to continue reinvigorating what we know about writing and writers By grounding this collection in ongoing interest in writing related transfer the role of metacognition in supporting successful transfer and the habits of mind within the Framework for Success in Postsecondary Writing Pedagogical Perspectives on Cognition and Writing highlights the robust but also problematic potential cognitive theories of writing hold for how we research writing how we teach and tutor writers and how we work with community writers Pedagogical Perspectives on Cognition and Writing includes a foreword by Susan Miller Cochran and an afterword by Asao Inoue Additional contributors include Melvin E Beavers Subrina Bogan Harold Brown Christine Cucciarre Barbara J D Angelo Gita DasBender Tonya Eick Gregg Fields Morgan Gross Jessica Harnisch David Hyman Caleb James Peter H Khost William J Macauley Jr Heather MacDonald Barry M Maid Courtney Patrick Weber Patricia Portanova Sherry Rankins Robertson J Michael Rifenburg Duane Roen Airlie Rose Wendy Ryden Thomas Skeen Michelle Stuckey Sean Tingle James Toweill Martha A Townsend Kelsie Walker and Bronwyn T Williams
