Faith stories Anna Hickey-Moody, 2023-04-25 Faith stories is an investigation of faith and belief systems in Australia and England Drawing on ethnography interviews focus groups for adults and arts based workshops for their children Hickey Moody takes a community based approach to examining belonging attachment faith belief and what really matters in diverse areas Each of the book's research sites is geographically and culturally specific in ways that shape residents experiences of community and belonging but they are united by enduring threads relating to colonisation diaspora and negotiating belonging in culturally diverse contexts Examining faith reveals that there are striking similarities between seemingly different cultures Understanding these connections can reduce conflict and promote cohesion in communities that are often struggling to adapt to huge changes This book provides rich resources for those who wish to explore faith and belief in complex social circumstances either as research or as community engagement In such increasingly divided times work like this is needed now more than ever

Fictions in South Australian History Carolyn Collins, Paul Sendziuk, 2018-10-15 In this lively provocative collection some of Australia's leading historians and a Miles Franklin shortlisted historical novelist challenge established myths, narratives and beautiful lies about South Australia's past. Some are unmasked as false stories that mask brutal realities like colonial violence while others are revealed as simplistic versions of more complex truths. Each generation writes history that speaks to its own interests and concerns. Write historians Paul Ashton and Anna Clark. In Foundational Fictions in South Australian History which grew out of a series of public lectures at the University of Adelaide an impressive range of contributors suggest different ways in which familiar narratives of South Australia can be interpreted. These essays tap into wider debates too about the nature and purpose of history and the history wars first flamed by John Howard. Stuart Macintyre highlights South Australia's central role in several national events. Humphrey McQueen questions the origins and influence of the money behind South Australia's so-called progressive founding. Lucy Treloar suggests historians can learn from novelists when it comes to understanding the past. Steven Anderson argues that Don Dunstan's achievement in abolishing capital punishment owed much to a historical movement. And Carolyn Collins highlights the role of the anti-conscription group Save Our Sons SOS in not just ending the Vietnam War but broadening the appeal of the anti-war movement.
