Strangling Aunty: Perilous Times for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation Virginia Small, 2021-09-24 Drawing on a wealth of academic research statistics and interviews with key Australian media people including present and former Australian Broadcasting Corporation staffers this book explores the transitions of the ABC under various types of organisational re strategising governance and political shifts The book provides the reader with an authoritative narrative as to how the ABC has lost its iconic status in Australian society and unfolds how the ABC has strayed from its respected public charter which endowed the ABC with a distinctive and important role in informing educating and entertaining the Australian public Successive federal government funding cuts have shrunk staffing levels and services while it has pursued a corporatist model that mimics the trappings and practices of commercial media In that process it has become politicised and trivialised thereby threatening its demise The book is a unique and timely contribution at a time of dwindling interest for the funding of public assets everywhere There is no other book in the market that addresses the decline of the organisation the ABC and analyses the reasons for its demise within an organisational theoretical framework The book is written for an educated general audience with academics and media practitioners specifically in mind and has everyday applications for business organisations operating in the public sector by bringing together important findings of public funding budgets management and organisational strategies and evolution

Enhancing Organizational Leadership Practice Alan Fish, Xianglin Ma, 2023-07-12 This book is a resource for enhancing the relationship between the three core responsibilities for those in organizational leadership roles organization responsibilities addressing missions objectives strategies and operations in general multistakeholder responsibilities addressing staff shareholders and external actors of various types ecological and ethical responsibilities relating to cultural environmental and governance issues Through the application of Western and Chinese concepts critiques of current issues and circumstances potentially impacting the effectiveness of organizational leadership thinking and behavior are considered and several practical examples of the proposed relationship responsibility perspectives are provided The perspectives given in this book are employed to enhance the effective application of a capital investment approach to human resources HR as distinct from the more traditional human resource management approach This book will be of particular value to those in organisational leadership roles to those studying organizational leadership at the postgraduate level and to those seeking to advance their careers in organisational leadership roles

Julia 2010

Marian Simms, John Wanna, 2012-02-01 This book provides a comprehensive coverage of one of Australia's most historic elections which produced a hung parliament and a carefully crafted minority government that remains a heartbeat away from collapse as well as Australia's first elected woman Prime Minister and the Australian Greens first lower house Member of Parliament The volume considers the key contextual and possibly determining factors such as the role of leadership and ideology in the campaign the importance of state and regional factors was there evidence of the two or three speed economy at work and the role of policy areas and issues including the environment immigration religion gender and industrial relations Contributors utilise a wide range of sources and approaches to provide comprehensive insights into the campaign This volume notably includes the perspectives of the major political groupings the ALP the Coalition and the Greens and the data from the Australian Election Survey Finally we conclude with a detailed analysis of those 17 days that it took to construct a minority party government Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia,1988 The Australian TV Book Stuart Cunningham,2020-07-25 Television is the most pervasive mass medium of the industrialised world It is blamed for creating alienation and violence in society yet at the same time regarded as trivial and unworthy of serious attention It is the main purveyor of global popular culture yet also intensely local The Australian TV Book paints the big picture of the small screen in Australia It examines industry dynamics in a rapidly changing environment the impact of new technology recent changes in programming and the ways in which the television industry targets its audiences The authors highlight what is distinctive about television in Australia and how it is affected by international developments This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand Australian television today Stuart Cunningham is Professor of Media and Journalism at Queensland University of Technology Graeme Turner is director of the Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies at the University of Queensland They are editors of the leading textbook The Media in Australia and authors of many other works on the media Australian national bibliography ,1961 International Students in the Asia Pacific Peter Kell,Gillian Vogl,2012-02-27 This book documents the growing mobility of international students in the Asia Pacific International students comprise over 2.7m students and it is estimated by the OECD that this will top 8 million in 2020 The great majority of them are students from the Asian countries who study in the Europe North America and Asia In addition countries such as Singapore Malaysia and Hong Kong are becoming education hubs and are proposing to attract international students Over 42% of international students come from Asia and this is predicted to continue with the strong presence of students from China India Korea and Japan continuing A younger population a growing middle class and shortages of quality education providers in the Asia Pacific region means that this mobility will be a feature of the future This book explores questions around the mobility of international students in the context of the global economy and an increasingly competitive trans national education market It also explores questions about the experience of international students principally from the Asia Pacific region at a time of increased global insecurity and growing hostile reactions to foreigners in the post September 11th era This book emerges from empirical work from several research projects funded by the World Bank and several community projects to support international students The focus is also on the way in which student mobility promotes growing connection within the Asia Pacific as well as other regions and provides the foundations for new notions of global citizenships The Palgrave Handbook of Cross-Border Journalism Liane Rothenberger,Martin Löffelholz,David H. Weaver,2024-01-02 This handbook critically analyzes cross border news production and transnational journalism cultures in the evolving field of cross border journalism As the era of the internet has further expanded the border transcending production dissemination and reception of news and with transnational co operations like the European Broadcasting Union and BBC World News demonstrating different kinds of cross border journalism the handbook considers the field with a range of international contributions It explores cross border journalism from conceptual and empirical angles and includes perspectives on the systemic contexts of cross border journalism its structures and routines changes in production processes and the shifting roles of actors in digital environments It examines cross border journalism across regions and concludes with discussions on the future of cross border journalism including the influence of automation algorithmisation virtual reality and AI

International Broadcasting and Its Contested Role in Australian Statecraft Geoff Heriot, 2023-03-14 This book offers an insightful reappraisal of international broadcasting as discursive rather than soft power in service of democratic statecraft This at a time when issues of transnational media the credibility of news and the perils of disinformation and information warfare figure worryingly in public discourse Reflecting the perspective of middle power Australia author Geoff Heriot locates the strategic utility of multiplatform international broadcasting with reference to contemporary theories of soft hard smart power projection and intercultural communication He applies a fresh model of strategic analysis to the political history of Radio Australia examining the various external and internal variables that resulted in its flawed success in political communication during the late Cold War period

Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia Enqi Weng, 2019-12-05 This volume explores the contradiction between the news coverage given to issues of religion particularly since 2001 in relation to issues such as terrorism politics security and gender and the fact of its apparent decline according to Census data Based on media research in Australia and offering comparisons with the UK the author demonstrates that media discussions overlook the diversity that exists within religions particularly the country's main religion Christianity and presents religion according to specific interpretations shaped by race class and gender which in turn result in very limited understandings of religion itself Drawing on understandings of the sacred as a non negotiable value present in religious and secular form Media Perceptions of Religious Changes in Australia calls for a broader sociological perspective on religion and will appeal to scholars of sociology and media studies with interests in religion and public life

The Australian Government Muscling in on School Education Grant Rodwell, 2020-05-07 Despite the Australian Constitution implying school education to be a state responsibility the Commonwealth has increasingly interfered with state school education The Australian Government Muscling in on School Education therefore offers a historical account of this government involvement in Australian education from federation to the present day providing a much needed fully updated and relevant overview the topic Arguing that education has become an arena for competing political forces this book examines the powerful influence of the Commonwealth over education and the political motives behind it exploring how politics influences aspects of the curriculum teaching standards assessment and reporting funding teacher selection and policy more broadly Ultimately questioning whether this influence is in the interests of the members of the community who depend on education the book holds government engagement in education to account Taking the major epochs of federalism as an organizing framework the book s chapters include explorations of The efficiency dynamic and the progressive years 1919 39 Postwar imperatives and the Menzies years 1949 72 Coordinative federalism and treading softly the Whitlam years 1972 5 and Fraser years 1975 83 Corporate federalism the Hawke Keating years 1983 96 Supply side federalism and globalization the Howard years 1996 2007 National control and the Rudd Gillard Abbott Turnbull and Morrison years 2007 15 A thorough and significant examination of the historical engagement of the Australian government in education this book is essential reading for student teachers and postgraduate students in education studies and politics

Public service broadcasting Mendel, Toby, 2013-12-31 Australia's Nuclear Policy Michael Clarke, Stephan Frühling, 2016-03-03 Australia s Nuclear Policy Reconciling Strategic Economic and Normative Interests critically re evaluates Australia s engagement with nuclear weapons nuclear power and the nuclear fuel cycle since the dawn of the nuclear age The authors develop a holistic conception of nuclear policy that extends across the three distinct but related spheres strategic economic and normative that have arisen from the basic dual use dilemma of nuclear technology Existing scholarship on Australia s nuclear policy has generally grappled with each of these spheres in isolation In a fresh evaluation of the field the authors investigate the broader aims of Australian nuclear policy and detail how successive Australian governments have engaged with nuclear issues since 1945 Through its holistic approach the book demonstrates the logic of seemingly conflicting policy positions at the heart of Australian nuclear policy including simultaneous reliance on US extended deterrence and the pursuit of nuclear disarmament Such apparent contradictions highlight the complex relationships between different ends and means of nuclear policy How successive Australian governments of different political shades have attempted to reconcile these in their nuclear policy over time is a central part of the history and future of Australia s engagement with the nuclear fuel cycle
