Glass, 2004-07-06 It is a common belief that Jews did nothing to resist their own fate in the Holocaust However the realities of disintegrating physical and psychological conditions and the efforts of ghetto undergrounds to counter collaborationist judenrat policies and the despair could not but lead to a breakdown in spiritual life Confessing Christ in a Post-Holocaust World Henry F. Knight, 2006-05-01 Proposes a new model of Christian faithfulness in a post Holocaust world Exiled God and Exiled Peoples Andrea Fröchtling, 2002

Exiled God and exiled peoples sets out to explore the perceptions of God within a number of forcibly removed communities in South Africa and Jewish survivors of the Shoah with the latter being predominantly of German origin. It considers rupture in individual and communal life stories as a determining factor in the perception of and the relationship with God and follows the path paved by survivors of apartheid and the Shoah by recalling their topology, their stories about place displacement and terror and the encapsulated relationship with God in their respective exiles.

Covenant and the Jewish Conversion

Question Benji Levy, 2021-09-24. Covenant and the Jewish Conversion Question reevaluates conversion and Jewish identity through the lens of Rabbi Joseph B. Soloveitchik's dual conception of the Covenants of Fate and Destiny. By studying an array of key rabbinic texts through this lens, the book explores the boundaries and interplay between these biblical covenants through apostasy, holiness and the key elements relating to conversion law. This understanding provides a relevant framing device to deal with the conversion and Jewish identity crises faced in the State of Israel and beyond.

The Routledge

Companion to Death and Dying Christopher Moreman, 2017-05-18. Few issues apply universally to people as poignantly as death and dying. All religions address concerns with death from the handling of human remains to defining death to suggesting what happens after life. The Routledge Companion to Death and Dying provides readers with an overview of the study of death and dying. Questions of death, mortality and more recently of end of life care have long been important ones and scholars from a range of fields have approached the topic in a number of ways. Comprising over fifty-two chapters from a team of international contributors, the companion covers funerary and mourning practices, concepts of the afterlife, psychical issues associated with death and dying, clinical and ethical issues, philosophical issues, death and dying as represented in popular culture. This comprehensive collection of essays will bring together perspectives from fields as diverse as history, philosophy, literature, psychology, archaeology and religious studies while including various religious traditions including established religions like Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism and Buddhism as well as new or less widely known traditions such as the Spiritualist Movement, the Church of Latter Day Saints and Rastafarianism. The Routledge Companion to Death and Dying is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies, philosophy and literature.

The Holocaust

Across Generations Janet Jacobs, 2017-01-03. Winner of the 2017 Outstanding Book Award for the Peace, War and Social Conflict Section presented by the American Sociological Association. Brings together the study of post-Holocaust family culture with the study of collective memory. Over the last two decades, the cross-generational transmission of trauma has become an important area of research within both Holocaust studies and the more broad study of genocide. The overall findings of the research suggest that the Holocaust informs both the psychological and social development of the children of survivors who like their parents suffer from nightmares, guilt, fear and sadness. The impact of social memory on the construction of survivor identities among succeeding generations has not yet been adequately explained. Moreover, the importance of gender to the intergenerational transmission of trauma has for the most part been overlooked. In The Holocaust across Generations Janet Jacobs fills these significant gaps in the study of traumatic transference The volume brings together the study of post Holocaust family culture with the study of collective memory Through an in depth study of 75 children and grandchildren of survivors the book examines the social mechanisms through which the trauma of the Holocaust is conveyed by survivors to succeeding generations It explores the social structures such as narratives rituals belief systems and memorial sites through which the collective memory of trauma is transmitted within families examining the social relations of traumatic inheritance among children and grandchildren of Holocaust survivors Within this analytic framework feminist theory and the importance of gender are brought to bear on the study of traumatic inheritance and the formation of trauma based identities among Holocaust carrier groups

Looking Backward, Moving Forward Richard G. Hovannisian, 2017-07-05 The decades separating our new century from the Armenian Genocide the prototype of modern day nation killings have fundamentally changed the political composition of the region Virtually no Armenians remain on their historic territories in what is today eastern Turkey The Armenian people have been scattered about the world And a small independent republic has come to replace the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic which was all that was left of the homeland as the result of Turkish invasion and Bolshevik collusion in 1920 One element has remained constant Notwithstanding the eloquent compelling evidence housed in the United States National Archives and repositories around the world successive Turkish governments have denied that the predecessor Young Turk regime committed genocide and like the Nazis who followed their example sought aggressively to deflect blame by accusing the victims themselves This volume argues that the time has come for Turkey to reassess the propriety of its approach and to begin the process that will allow it move into a post genocide era The work includes Genocide An Agenda for Action Gijs M de Vries Determinants of the Armenian Genocide Donald Bloxham Looking Backward and Forward Joyce Apsel The United States Response to the Armenian Genocide Simon Payaslian The League of Nations and the Reclamation of Armenian Genocide Survivors Vahram L Shemmassian Raphael Lemkin and the Armenian Genocide Steven L Jacobs Reconstructing Turkish Historiography of the Armenian Massacres and Deaths of 1915 Fatma Muge Goccek Bitter Sweet Memories The Armenian Genocide and International Law Joe Verhoeven New Directions in Literary Response to the Armenian Genocide Rubina Perroomian Denial and Free Speech Henry C Theriault Healing and Reconciliation Ervin Staub State and Nation Raffi K Hovannisian

Memorializing the Holocaust Janet Jacobs, 2010-07-30 How do collective memories of histories of violence and trauma in war and genocide come to be created Janet Jacobs offers new understandings of this crucial issue in her examination of the representation of gender in the memorial culture of Holocaust monuments and museums from synagogue memorials and other historical places of Jewish life to the geographies of Auschwitz Majdanek and Ravensbruck Jacobs travelled to Holocaust sites across Europe to explore representations of women She reveals how these memorial cultures construct masculinity and femininity as well as the Holocaust's effect on stereotyping on grounds of race or gender She also uncovers the wider ways in which images of violence against women have become universal symbols of mass trauma and genocide This feminist analysis of Holocaust memorialization brings together gender and collective memory with the geographies of genocide to fill a significant gap in our understanding of genocide and national remembrance New Perspectives on the Holocaust Rochelle L.
