Preventing Things from Falling Further Apart Paul Mukundi, 2010-04-30 Preventing Things from Falling Further Apart The Preservation of Cultural Identities in Postcolonial African Indian and Caribbean

Literatures is a ground breaking comparative work that explores a post Achebe universe in which formerly colonized peoples make efforts to reconstruct their cultures by deconstructing some of the deleterious effects of colonization while at the same time embracing postcolonial realities This volume focuses on the culturally confusing impact of colonization on individuals and their communities specifically on indigenous languages education status of women and religious participation The author analyzes representative literary works authored by from Africa Ngugi wa Thiong o and Zakes Mda from India Mahasweta Devi and Arundhati Roy and from the Caribbean Jamaica Kincaid and Maryse Conde

Derrida & Education Gert J.J. Biesta, Denise Egéa-Kuehne, 2005-06-29 This important book demonstrates how Derrida s work provides a highly relevant perspective on the aims content and nature of education in today s multicultural societies

Asian Biblical Hermeneutics and Postcolonialism R. S. Sugirtharajah, 1999-02-01 The volume contributes a postcolonial perspective to such topics as textual production commentarial writings and translations in colonial times and then moves on to inspect Eurocentric notions embedded in current western biblical interpretation especially in projects such as Jesus Research It also contains an overview of and introduction to one of the most challenging and controversial theories of our time postcolonialism a theory that gives mediation and representation to Third World people Though long established in cultural studies postcolonial theory has not previously been seriously applied to Asian biblical interpretation

The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan, 2002-09-26 Travel writing it has been said helped produce the rest of the world for a Western audience Could the same be said more recently of postcolonial writing In The Postcolonial Exotic Graham Huggan examines some of the processes by which value is attributed to postcolonial works within their cultural field Using varied methods of analysis Huggan discusses both the exoticist discourses that run through postcolonial studies and the means by which postcolonial products are marketed and domesticated for Western consumption Global in scope the book takes in everything from the latest Indo chic to the history of the Heinemann African Writers series from the celebrity stakes of the Booker Prize to those of the US academic star system from Canadian multicultural anthologies to Australian tourist novels This timely and challenging volume points to the urgent need for a more carefully grounded understanding of the processes of production dissemination and consumption that have surrounded the rapid development of the postcolonial field

An Invitation to Social Theory David Inglis, 2024-11-05 Social theory is a crucial resource for the social sciences It provides rich insights into how human beings think and act and how contemporary social life is constructed But often the key ideas of social theorists are expressed in highly technical and difficult language that can hide more than it reveals The new edition of this popular book continues to cut to the core of what social theory is about Wide ranging in scope and coverage it is concise in presentation and free from jargon Covering key themes and schools of thought from the classical thinkers up to the present the third edition features a new chapter dedicated to post colonial sociological theory With updated literature and examples throughout the book also includes refreshed pedagogical features to connect theory to readers own life experiences Showing why social theory matters and why it is of far reaching social and political importance the book is ideal for readers seeking a clear crisp mapping of a complex but very rewarding area Diasporic Literature and Theory - Where Now? Mark Shackleton, 2009-03-26 The theoretical innovations of Edward Said Homi Bhabha Gayatri Spivak Stuart Hall Paul Gilroy James Clifford and others have in recent years vitalized postcolonial and diaspora studies challenging ways in which we understand culture and developing new ways of thinking beyond the confines of the nation state The articles in this volume look at recent developments in diasporic literature and theory alluding to the work of seminal diaspora theoreticians but also interrogating such thinkers in the light of recent cultural production including literature film and visual art as well as recent world events The articles are organized in pairs offering alternative perspectives on crucial aspects of diaspora theory today Celebration or Melancholy Gender Biases and the Canon of Diasporic Literature Diasporas of Violence and Terror Time Place and Diasporic Home and Border Crossings A number of the articles are illustrated by discussions of particular authors such as Caryl Phillips Salman Rushdie and Michael Ondaatje and the range of reference found in this volume covers writing from many parts of the world including contemporary Chicana visual art Asian diaspora writers and Black British Afro Caribbean Native North American and African writing Rereading the Imperial Romance Laura Chrisman, 2000 This book examines literary romance as a vehicle for the ideological contradictions of British imperialism in South Africa Chrisman draws upon postcolonial theory and cultural materialism to discuss the imperialist Rider Haggard's fictional accounts of mining in King Solomon's Mines and Zulu history in Nada the Lily examining these novels as fraught responses to the introduction of capitalist modernity She goes on to analyse the counter narratives of metropolitan and African resistance of feminist Olive Schreiner and black nationalist Sol Plaatje Exploring Schreiner's much neglected Trooper Peter Halket of Mashonaland Chrisman situates this book in relation to the violent creation of Rhodesia the 1896-7 Shona uprisings and contemporary criticism of Cecil Rhodes In doing so she shows how Schreiner's is a much more challenging example of anti imperialist fiction than Conrad's Heart of Darkness published two years later Chrisman's discussion of Plaatje's Mhudi the first black African novel in English considers the book as a direct response to Haggard's imperialism and Schreiner's feminist theory Locating the book through the politics and epistemology of the early ANC she reveals how Plaatje challenges Haggard's misogyny and fatalistic historiography Mhudi she argues is a novel whose nationalist and sexual politics are considerably more complex than has been recognized Plaatje uses his narrative form to articulate both radical and liberal alternatives to white South African rule Chrisman's book demonstrates how South Africa played an important if now overlooked role in British imperial culture and shows the impact of capitalism itself in the making of racial gender and national identities This book makes an original contribution to studies of Victorian literature of empire South African literary history African studies black nationalism and the literature of resistance Bodies and Voices Anna Rutherford, European Association for Commonwealth Literature and Language Studies. Conference, 2008 The articles investigate representations in literature both by the colonizers and colonized Many deal with the effect the dominant culture had on the self image of native inhabitants They cover areas on all continents that were colonized by European countries

Colonialism/Postcolonialism Ania Loomba, 2015-04-17 Colonialism Postcolonialism is a comprehensive yet accessible guide to the historical theoretical and political dimensions of colonial and postcolonial studies This new edition includes a new introduction and conclusion as well as extensive updates throughout Topics covered include globalization new grassroots movements including Occupy Wall Street the environmental crisis and the relationship between Marxism and postcolonial studies Loomba also discusses how ongoing struggles such as those of indigenous peoples and the enclosure of the commons in different parts of the world shed light on the long histories of colonialism This edition also has extensive discussions of temporality and the relationship between premodern colonial and contemporary forms of racism This books includes key features of the ideologies and history of colonialism the relationship of colonial discourse to literature anticolonial thought and movements challenges to colonialism including anticolonial discourses recent developments in postcolonial theories and histories issues of sexuality and colonialism and the intersection of feminist and postcolonial thought the relationship of activist struggles and scholarship Colonialism Postcolonialism is the essential introduction to a vibrant and politically charged area of literary and cultural study It is the ideal guide for students new to colonial discourse theory postcolonial studies or postcolonial theory as well as a reference for advanced students and teachers

Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess, 2008-05-24 Despite being central to the project of postcolonialism the concept of resistance has received only limited theoretical examination Writers such as Frantz Fanon Edward Said and Homi K Bhabha have explored instances of revolt opposition or subversion but there has been insufficient critical analysis of the concept of resistance particularly as it relates to liberation or social and cultural transformation In Postcolonial Resistance David Jefferess looks to redress this critical imbalance Jefferess argues that interpreting resistance as these critics have done as either acts of opposition or practices of subversion is insufficient He discerns in the existing critical literature an alternate paradigm for postcolonial politics and through close analyses of the work of Mohandas Gandhi and the South African reconciliation project Postcolonial Resistance seeks to redefine resistance to reconnect an analysis of colonial discourse to material structures of colonial exploitation and inequality Engaging works of postcolonial fiction literary criticism historiography and cultural theory Jefferess conceives of resistance and reconciliation as dependent upon the transformation of both the colonial subject and the antagonistic nature of colonial power In doing so he reframes postcolonial conceptions of resistance violence and liberation thus inviting future scholarship in the field to reconsider past conceptualizations of political power and opposition to that power
