Contesting Media Power Alternative Media In A Networked World:

Contesting Media Power Nick Couldry, James Curran, 2003 Contesting Media Power is the most ambitious international collection to date on the worldwide growth of alternative media that are challenging the power concentration in large media corporations Media scholars and political scientists develop a broad comparative framework for analyzing alternative media in Australia Chile China Indonesia Malaysia Russia Sweden South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Topics include independent media centers gay online networks and alternative web discussion forums feminist film political journalism and social networks indigenous communication and church sponsored media This important book will help shape debates on the media's role in current global struggles such as the anti globalization movement Contesting Media Power James Curran, Nick Couldry, 2003-09-22 Contesting Media Power is the most ambitious international collection to date on the worldwide growth of alternative media that are challenging the power concentration in large media corporations Media scholars and political scientists develop a broad comparative framework for analyzing alternative media in Australia Chile China Indonesia Malaysia Russia Sweden South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Topics include independent media centers gay online networks and alternative web discussion forums feminist film political journalism and social networks indigenous communication and church sponsored media This important book will help shape debates on the media's role in current global struggles such as the anti globalization movement Alternative Media and Politics of Resistance Joshua D. Atkinson, 2010 Scholars of journalism and media studies have illustrated the production of alternative media as a means for activists to generate dissent while communication scholars have examined activists performances and image events as challenges to dominant power structures The approaches of both fields have contributed to academic understanding of social movements in modern society but until now their findings have emerged separate from one another This book brings together both lines of research and demonstrates the role of alternative media in the performance of resistance against power structures by contemporary activists Specifically the book explores the role of alternative media in the establishment of activist networks in local communities the role of alternative media in the construction of strategies of resistance by networked activists and the role of interactivity between local and global networks in production of alternative media content The book is suitable for undergraduate and graduate courses concerning social movements within the fields of communication media and journalism Understanding Alternative Media Bailey, Olga, Cammaerts, Bart, Carpentier, Nico, 2007-12-01 This clear and concise text offers a one stop guide through the complex political social and economic debates that surround alternative media and provides a fresh and insightful look at the renewed importance of this form of communication The Contradictions of Media Power Des Freedman, 2014-09-25 Media power is a crucial although often taken for granted concept We assume for example that the media are powerful if they were not why would there be so many controversies over the regulation control and impact of communicative institutions and processes Further we assume that this power is somehow problematic audiences are often treated as highly susceptible to media influence and too much power in the hands of one organization or individual is seen as risky and potentially dangerous These concerns have been at the heart of recent controversies involving the relationships between media moguls and political elites the consequences of phone hacking in the UK and the emerging influence of social media as vital gatekeepers Yet it is still not clear what we mean by media power or how effective it is This book evaluates contrasting definitions of media power and looks at the key sites in which power is negotiated concentrated and resisted politically technologically and economically Combining an evaluation of both previous literature and new research the book seeks to establish an understanding of media power which does justice to the complexities and contradictions of the contemporary social world It will be important reading for undergraduates postgraduates researchers and activists alike Remaking Media Robert Hackett, William Carroll, 2006-07-29

Two renowned authors in the field take an innovative approach and present this unique and timely book which examines the democratization of the media and the activism directed towards challenging and changing media content practices and structures Media Power and Global Television News Saba Bebawi, 2016-01-05

The Middle East has been a particular focus of global crisis reporting Yet international coverage of these conflicts has historically been presented through a Western perspective The absence of Arab voices in the global public sphere has created a discursive gap between the Middle East and the rest of the world The arrival of Al Jazeera English might therefore be regarded as an attempt to bridge this gap by broadcasting discourses from and about the Arab world Using a framing analysis of selected news reports by Al Jazeera English before and after the so called Arab Spring protests this book considers Al Jazeera English's position in the global news environment and identifies the extent to which it addresses this gap between the Arab and global spheres

The Alternative Media Handbook Kate Coyer, Tony Dowmunt, Alan Fountain, 2007-12-27 Alternative Media is the term used to describe non mainstream media forms that are independently run and community focussed such as zines pirate radio online discussion boards community run and owned broadcasting companies and activist publications such as Red Pepper and Corporate Watch The book outlines the different types of alternative InsUrgent Media from the Front Chris Robé, Stephen Charbonneau, 2020-11-03

In the 1940s it was 16 mm film In the 1980s it was handheld video cameras Today it is cell phones and social media Activists have always found ways to use the media du jour for quick and widespread distribution InsUrgent Media from the Front takes a look at activist media practices in the 21st century and sheds light on what it means to enact change using different media of the past and present Chris Rob and Stephen Charbonneau's edited collection uses the term insUrgent media to highlight the ways grassroots media activists challenged and are challenging hegemonic norms like colonialism patriarchy imperialism classism and heteronormativity Additionally the term is used to convey the sense of urgency that defines media activism Unlike slower traditional media activist media has historically sacrificed aesthetics for immediacy Consequently this run and gun method of capturing content has shaped the way activist media looks throughout history With chapters focused on indigenous resistance community media and the use of media as activism throughout US history InsUrgent Media from the Front emphasizes the wide reach media activism has had over time Visibility is not enough when it comes to media activism and the contributors provide examples of how to refocus the field not only to be an activist but to study activism as well Theorising Media and Conflict Philipp Budka,Birgit Bräuchler,2020-04-09 Theorising Media and Conflict brings together anthropologists as well as media and communication scholars to collectively address the elusive and complex relationship between media and conflict Through epistemological and methodological reflections and the analyses of various case studies from around the globe this volume provides evidence for the co constitutiveness of media and conflict and contributes to their consolidation as a distinct area of scholarship Practitioners policymakers students and scholars who wish to understand the lived realities and dynamics of contemporary conflicts will find this book invaluable Alternative Journalism Chris Atton,James F Hamilton,2008-11-20 A provocative inspiring and challenging intervention in both journalism and media studies Alternative Journalism is that rare book that services students as much as scholars It widens the trajectory of media studies and creates different modes of reading writing and thinking It offers an alternative history beyond the tales of great men great newspapers great editors and great technologies It adds value and content to overused and ambiguous words such as community and citizenship and captures the spark of new information environments THE Times Higher Education Alternative Journalism investigates and analyses the diverse forms and genres of journalism that have arisen as challenges to mainstream news coverage From the radical content of emancipatory media to the dizzying range of citizen journalist blogs and fanzine subcultures this book charts the historical and cultural practices of this diverse and globalized phenomenon This exploration goes to the heart of journalism itself prompting a critical inquiry into the epistemology of news the professional norms of objectivity the elite basis of journalism and the hierarchical commerce of news production In investigating the challenges to media power presented by alternative journalism Atton addresses not just the issues of politics and empowerment but also the journalism of popular culture and the everyday The result is essential reading for students of journalism both mainstream and alternative Free Markets Free Media? Cherian George,2008 This title examines the impact of market forces on the efforts to build and consolidate more democratic media in Asia Democratic forces in the Philippines South Korea and Indonesia have loosened the grip of authoritarian governments while even in tightly controlled regimes such as China and Vietnam the media landscape is changing Social Media and the Politics of Reportage S. Bebawi,D. Bossio,2014-09-23 Social Media and the Politics of Reportage explores the journalistic challenges issues and opportunities that have risen as a result of social media increasingly being used as a form of crisis reporting within the field of global journalism with a focus on the protests during the Arab Spring The Independent Media Movements in Hong Kong and Taiwan Levon Kwok,2022-12-30 This book examines the independent media movements by Inmediahk and Coolcloud long established autonomous media organizations that have agitated for the development of media freedom and human rights in Hong Kong and Taiwan since 2004 and 1997 respectively Based on direct interviews with the founders and core members of Inmediahk and Coolcloud the author investigates the origins growth and achievements of Inmediahk and Coolcloud s media social movements as well as the current challenges the two independent media outlets encounter with regard to funding increasing socio political pressure and the complicated media environments in Hong Kong and Taiwan using the method of qualitative content interpretation Moreover the practicality of social media and independent media in contemporary social movements including the 2019 Anti Extradition Bill Movement in Hong Kong is reviewed according to text analysis Considering the prospect of media activism from a non western perspective this book will appeal not only to scholars and researchers with interests in media social movement and cultural studies but also to media workers and activists across the globe

British Broadcasting and the Public-Private Dichotomy Simon Dawes,2017-07-10 This text offers a theoretical engagement with the ways in which private and public interests and how those interests have been understood have framed the changing rationale for broadcasting regulation using the first century of UK broadcasting as a starting point Unlike most books on broadcasting this text adopts an explicitly Foucauldian and genealogical perspective in its account of media history and power and unpicks how the meanings of terms such as public service and public interest as well as competition and choice have evolved over time In considering the appropriation by broadcasting scholars of concepts such as neoliberalism citizenship and the public sphere to a critical account of broadcasting history the book assesses their appropriateness and efficacy by engaging with interdisciplinary debates on each concept This work will be of particular significance to academics and students with an interest in media theory history policy and regulation as well as those disposed to understanding as well as critiquing the neoliberalization of public media

Global Civil Society 2007/8 Professor Martin Albrow,Professor Helmut K Anheier,Marlies Glasius,Monroe E Price,Professor Mary Kaldor,2007-11-21 The annual Global Civil Society Yearbooks provide an indispensable guide to global civil society or civic participation and action around the world The 2007 8 Yearbook focuses on the potentially powerful relationship between communication and democracy promotion The Global Civil Society Yearbook remains the standard work on all aspects of contemporary global civil society for activists practitioners students and academics alike

Public Relations and the Public Interest Jane Johnston,2016-02-12 In this book Johnston seeks to put the public interest onto the public relations radar arguing the need for its clear articulation into mainstream public relations discourse This book examines literature from a range of fields and disciplines to develop a clearer understanding of the concept and then considers this within the theory and practice of public relations The book s themes include the role of language and discourse in establishing successful public interest PR and in perpetuating power imbalances intersections between CSR governance law and the public interest and how activism and social media have invigorated community control of the public interest Chapters explore the role of the public interest including cross cultural and multicultural challenges community and internal consultation communication choices and listening to minorities and subaltern publics Political Campaigning on the Web Sigrid Baringhorst, Veronika Kneip, Johanna Niesyto, 2017-11-15 Drawing upon a common conceptual framework of political webcampaigning the book offers theoretical reflections on Internet based campaign politics It provides a comparative overview on the use of the Internet as a campaigning instrument by diverse intermediary political actors Taking the empirical findings of Internet appropriations into consideration the book discusses the impact of political webcampaigning on transnational democracy and the transformation of public spheres The SAGE Encyclopedia of Journalism Gregory A. Borchard, 2022-01-28 Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways that we have long taken for granted This set covers all significant dimensions of journalism such as print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives and history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The encyclopedia consists of signed entries from scholars experts and journalists Media, Religion, Citizenship Kumru Berfin Emre, 2023 Alevis have been struggling for the right of recognition and equal citizenship in Turkey for decades Alevi media enables a particular form of transversal citizenship Emre presents Alevi media for the first time demonstrating the flourishing of ethno religious imaginaries through community media
