Canadian Evangelicalism in the Twentieth Century John G. Stackhouse, Jr.,1998-10 In the 1980s evangelical Protestantism emerged as a prominent new force in Canada While political campaigns and sexual scandals among American evangelicals attracted attention north of the border as well Canadian evangelicals were quietly establishing a network of individuals and institutions that reflected their distinctive concerns While the United Anglican and Presbyterian churches continued to enjoy mainline Protestant status in Canadian culture more Canadians who actually practiced Christianity in measurable ways could be counted among the evangelicals than among these dominant Protestant denominations And while most Canadians including experts in religious studies continued to think of Canadian Christianity in traditional denominational terms evangelicalism was coming into focus as a category essential to understanding this new pattern of allegiance and activity Introduction

The Canadian Protestant Experience, 1760 to 1990 George A. Rawlyk,1994 Five leading Canadian religious historians address the Canadian Protestant experience Each author considers a separate period taking into account the major underlying themes of the time and noting the influence exerted by key personalities As this collection shows Protestantism had its most profound effects on Canadian life in the nineteenth century As the twentieth century unfolded however Canadian Protestantism battered by demographic change profound inner doubt so called modernity and secularization was gradually pushed to the periphery of Canadian experience The contributors are Phyllis D Airhart Nancy Christie Michael Gauvreau John G Stackhouse Jr and Robert A Wright

Pilgrims in Lotus Land Robert Kenneth Burkinshaw,1995 Pilgrims in Lotus Land explores the remarkable growth of evangelicalism in an intensely secular province during the twentieth century Robert Burkinshaw explains why evangelicalism held such appeal paying particular attention to the distinctive character

Ross, 2023-08-15

Pentecostalism is one of the fastest growing religious movements in the world. In Canada it is the most rapidly growing Christian group among Indigenous people with approximately one in ten Pentecostals in the country being Indigenous. Pentecostalism has become a religious force in many Indigenous communities where congregations are most often led by Indigenous ministers, an achievement that took many decades. The Holy Spirit and the Eagle Feather traces the development of Indigenous Pentecostalism in Canada. Exploring the history of twentieth-century missionization with particular attention to the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada's Northland Mission founded in 1943, Aaron Ross shows how the denomination's Euro-Canadian leaders who believed themselves to be supporters of Indigenous-led churches struggled to relinquish control of mission management and finances. Drawing on interviews with contemporary figures in the movement, he describes how Indigenous Pentecostals would come to challenge the mission's eurocentrism over decades, eventually entering positions of leadership in the church. This process required them to confront the painful vestiges of colonialism and to grapple with the different philosophies and theologies of Pentecostalism and Indigenous traditional spiritualities. In doing so, they indigenized the movement and forged a new identity as Indigenous and Pentecostal. Indigenous Pentecostals now occupy key roles in the church and serve as political, cultural, and economic leaders in their communities. The Holy Spirit and the Eagle Feather tells the story of how they overcame the church's colonial impulses to become religious leaders as well as agents for decolonization and reconciliation. Canadian Pentecostals, the Trinity, and Contemporary Worship Music Michael

A. Tapper, 2017-05-08. This volume offers a landmark analysis of the trinitarian impulses in contemporary worship music used by the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada (PAOC). It considers whether the lyrics from the most commonly used PAOC songs are consistent with this Evangelical group's trinitarian statement of faith. Colin Gunton's trinitarian theology provides the theological rationale for eight original and qualitative content analyses of these songs. Three major areas are considered: the doctrine of God, human personhood, and cosmology. Making use of Gunton's notions of relationality, particularity, and perichoresis, along with several key Pentecostal scholars, this book serves as a helpful descriptive and prescriptive theological resource for the dynamic practice of a trinitarian faith. Constructing National Identity in Canadian and Australian Classrooms Stephen Jackson, 2018-06-06. This book explores the evolution of Canadian and Australian national identities in the era of decolonization by evaluating educational policies in Ontario, Canada, and Victoria, Australia. Drawing on sources such as textbooks and curricula, the book argues that Britishness, a sense of imperial citizenship connecting white Anglo-Saxons across the British Empire, continued to be a crucial marker of national identity in both Australia and Canada until the late 1960s and early 1970s, when educators in Ontario and Victoria abandoned Britishness in favor of multiculturalism.

Chapters explore how textbooks portrayed imperialism the close relationship between religious education and Britishness and efforts to end assimilationist Anglocentrism and promote equality in education The book contributes to British World scholarship by demonstrating how decolonization precipitated a massive search for identity in Ontario and Victoria that continues to challenge educators and policy makers today Winds from the North Michael Wilkinson, Peter Althouse, 2010 Michael Wilkinson Ph D 1999 in Sociology of Religion University of Ottawa is Associate Professor of Sociology and Director of the Religion in Canada Institute at Trinity Western University He has published extensively on Pentecostalism including the books The Spirit Said Go and Canadian Pentecostalism Alan Bowker's Canadian Heritage 2-Book Bundle Alan Bowker, 2015-12-07 In this two book bundle Alan Bowker sheds new light on two subjects with a surprising connection the great Canadian writer Stephen Leacock and the rise of Canada on the world stage which Leacock profiled with keen wit and observational skill With Bowker as your guide explore what it was really like to live through the great upheaval that pushed Canada to come into its own on the world stage A Time Such as There Never Was Before Ottawa Book Award 2015 Shortlisted The years after World War I were among the most tumultuous in Canadian history a period of unremitting change drama and conflict They were in the words of Stephen Leacock a time such as there never was before The war had been a great crusade and its end was supposed to bring a world made new But the conflict had cost sixty thousand Canadian lives with many more wounded and had stirred up divisions in the young diverse country With Canada struggling to define itself labour farmers business the church social reformers and minorities all held extravagant hopes irrational fears and contradictory demands Whose hopes would be realized and whose dreams would end in disillusionment Which changes would prove permanent and which would be transitory A Time Such As There Never Was Before describes how this exciting period laid the foundation of the Canada we know today On the Front Line of Life In the last decade of his life Stephen Leacock turned to writing informal essays that blended humour with a conversational style and ripened wisdom to address issues he cared about most education literature economics Canada and its place in the world and to confront the joys and sorrows of his own life With an introduction that sets them in the context of his life thoughts and times these essays reveal a passionate intelligent personal Leacock against a backdrop of Depression and war finding hope and conveying the timeless message that only the human spirit can bring social justice peace and progress Church Growth Bulletin Vol 2 McGavran Dona, 1977-05 The Bulletin - Committee on Archives of the United Church of Canada United Church of Canada.
