A Fluid Sense of Self Silvia Schultersmandl, Sebnem Toplu, 2010 In this era of increasing global mobility identities are too complex to be captured by concepts that rely on national borders for reference Such identities are not unified or stable but are fluid entities which constantly push at the boundaries of the nation state thereby re defining themselves and the nation state simultaneously Contemporary literature pays specific attention to internal and external notions of belonging Politics of Motion and definitions of self resulting from interpersonal relationships Politics of Longing This collection looks at texts by authors who are British American or Canadian but for whom a self definition according national parameters is insufficient

The Crisis , 2002-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

Hybrid Novels George Kowalik, 2025-10-03 The phrase post postmodernism has appeared in Contemporary Literary Studies since the 20th century but what does it mean Scholars have defined the term in various often contradictory ways Existing studies also rarely centralise race an essential component in the transition from postmodern irony to post postmodern sincerity Hybrid Novels analyses post postmodernism s only consistency and certainty hybridity

This speaks for a broader social issue concerning the ethics of categorisation and the conflicting labels imposed on subjectivity Hybrid Novels considers landmark American British novels by Percival Everett Jonathan Franzen Zadie Smith and David Foster Wallace published from 1996 to 2001 It positions these authors at the centre of the post postmodernism debate together for the first time This book suggests that 2010s autofiction further develops post postmodern tensions of irony and sincerity at the turn of the 21st century Major American Canadian novels by Sheila Heti Ben Lerner Teju Cole and Tao Lin are discussed published from 2010 to 2013 Contemporary Novelists M. Hutton,2012-09-19 Peter Childs offers accessible analyses of the work of twelve prominent contemporary British writers including Hanif Kureishi Pat Barker Zadie Smith and Jeanette Winterson This expanded second edition has been revised and updated throughout and now also features a new chapter on the younger generation of novelists born in the 1970s Zadie Smith Tracey Walters,2013-08-01 Zadie Smith made a huge splash in 1997 when as a college student she received one of the largest advances in British history for her novel White Teeth Since then Smith has published four major novels a volume of essays and many short stories She has become a college professor an award winner and an influential critic of both literature and the current political scene Readers of Zadie Smith will learn about how insecure and outside of society she felt as a child and young woman and how that very sense of being an outsider transformed her into the writer of clarity she is today Anglophone Jewish Literature Axel Stähler,2007-09-14 English has become the major language of contemporary Jewish literature This book shows the transnational character of that literature and how traditional viewpoints need to be reassessed The polemics of Ageing as reflected in Literatures. Essays on Ageing in Literature and Interviews with Vikram Chandra, James Halperin, Doris Lessing, Zadie Smith and Terri-ann White , El envejecimiento no es solo un proceso biológico sino también social económico psicológico político y cultural Las representaciones literarias del envejecimiento contribuyen a entender aspectos como el miedo a la decrepitud la pérdida de creatividad o la muerte las relaciones intergeneracionales y la sostenibilidad de la calidad de vida En el libro escritores y académicos discuten temas de vital importancia para nuestras sociedades actuales con artículos y entrevistas que reflejan actitudes positivas hacia el proceso en que todos estamos implicados The Crisis ,2005-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Book Review Digest ,1915

Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson,2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers Ian McEwan David

Mitchell Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms arealist apostmodernist ahistorical and apostcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell Sarah Hall A L Kennedy Alan Warner Ali Smith Kazuo Ishiguro Kate Atkinson Salman Rushdie Adam Foulds Sarah Waters James Robertson Mohsin Hamid Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna Reading Zadie Smith Philip Tew,2013-12-05 Since the publication of White Teeth in 2000 Zadie Smith has become one of the most popular contemporary writers and also one of the mostly widely studied Taking criticism of Smith's work beyond its traditional focus on postcolonialism and multicultural identity Reading Zadie Smith brings together leading international scholars to open up new directions in criticism of Smith's work Covering such key topics as posthumanism hysterical realism religion identity and ethics this book brings together a full range of current critical perspectives to explore not only Smith's novels but also her short stories her criticism and her non fiction writing Zadie Smith Philip Tew,2009-11-23 An introduction to the work of Zadie Smith placing her fiction in a clear historical and theoretical context and exploring her work in relation to contemporaneity and postcolonialism Including a timeline of key dates this guide offers an accessible reading of Smith's work and an overview of its critical reception Tales of Two Cities John Freeman,2015-09-08 Thirty major contemporary writers examine life in a deeply divided New York In a city where the top one percent earns more than a half million dollars per year while twenty five thousand children are homeless public discourse about our entrenched and worsening wealth gap has never been more sorely needed This remarkable anthology is the literary world's response with leading lights including Zadie Smith Junot Diaz and Lydia Davis bearing witness to the experience of ordinary New Yorkers in extraordinarily unequal circumstances Through fiction and reportage these writers convey the indignities and heartbreak the callousness and solidarities of living side by side with people of starkly different means They shed light on the subterranean lives of homeless people who must find a bed in the city's tunnels the stresses that gentrification can bring to neighbors in a Brooklyn apartment block the shenanigans of seriously alienated night shift paralegals the trials of a housing defendant standing up for tenants rights and the humanity that survives in the midst of a deeply divided city Tales of Two Cities is a brilliant moving and ultimately galvanizing clarion call for a city and a nation in crisis Faint Praise Gail Pool,2007-07-06 Pool's behind the scenes look at the institution of book reviewing analyzes how it works and why it often fails describes how editors choose books for review and assign them to reviewers examines the additional roles played by publishers authors and readers and contrasts traditional reviewing with newer alternative book coverage Provided by publisher Fictions of Proximity Tim Person,2023-11-02 Fictions of Proximity Skepticism Romanticism and the Wallace Nexus tells the story of a nexus of contemporary novelists around David Foster Wallace who took up the legacy of logical positivism and reworked it between the 1980s and the 2000s in a way that has affinities with romanticism The book shows how the writers of this Wallace nexus use fiction's complexities to challenge the idea that in human interactions only complete fusion and transparency may count as instances of knowing In place of this positivistic ideal of absorption the book offers the freshly defined concept of proximity a closeness with separateness It reads key novels of contemporary Anglo American literature as fictions of proximity i e as texts that dramatize problematize and enact the movement into this position of proximity To tell this story the book draws on unpublished archival materials and understudied connections advancing new interpretations of four novelists David Foster Wallace David Markson Bret Easton Ellis and Zadie Smith Fictions of Proximity provides new readings of these writers both of their canonical texts and of lesser known works and situates them with respect to prominent figures in contemporary post positivist philosophy
