Contemporary Hispanic Quotations Daniel E. Stanton, Edward F. Stanton, 2003 Contemporary Hispanic Crime Fiction G. Close, 2016-04-30 This study examines representations of the cityscape and of a so called new urban violence in both detective centered and detectiveless crime fiction produced in Spanish America and Spain during recent decades It documents the emergence and permutations of this production as an index not only of local perceptions of contemporary urban experience and of a contemporary urban ecology of fear but also as a transnational index of the globalization of literary forms and markets It centers on the inscription of urban space in novels set in the metropolitan centers of the Hispanic World Mexico City Bogota Buenos Aires and Barcelona The Contemporary Spanish Novel Samuel Amell, 1996-01-19 Although there are several annotated bibliographies of contemporary Spanish novelists this book covers critical works published on the post civil war Spanish novel as a literary form The volume cites books and articles and each citation is accompanied by a descriptive and evaluative annotation The work contains a section of entries on books and another on articles Entries within each section are arranged alphabetically Included are entries primarily for studies published in English or Spanish though some in Catalan French Galician and Italian are also cited In the last decades there has been an explosion of critical works on the post civil war Spanish novel This proliferation of material causes serious problems for scholars conducting research on the subject While there are bibliographies of particular novelists this book deals with general studies of trends topics and comparative approaches The volume primarily cites works published in English or Spanish but it also includes some in Catalan French Galician and Italian The volume is divided into two sections books and articles Within each section entries are arranged alphabetically Each citation is accompanied by a descriptive and evaluative annotation The annotations provide information about the topic content and methodology of the works cited and express an opinion of the works value The length of the annotations varies according to the importance of the topic Author and title indexes add to the utility of the work Contemporary Spanish Literature Aubrey Fitz Gerald Bell, 1925

African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra Faszler-McMahon, Victoria L. Ketz, 2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Equatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Guti rrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain s racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain s economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration

Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change

Contemporary Spanish Gothic Ann Davies, 2016-10-27 Examines Spain's contribution to international interest in Gothic culture film and literature With the success of novels such as The Shadow of the Wind and films like The Others contemporary Spanish culture has contributed a great deal to the imagery and experience of the Gothic although such contributions are not always recognised as being specifically Spanish in origin

Contemporary Spanish Gothic is the first book to study how the Gothic mode intersects with cultural production in Spain today considering some of the ways in which such production feeds off and simultaneously feeds into Gothic production more widely Examining the works of writers and filmmakers like Carlos Ruiz Zafón Arturo Pérez Reverte Pedro Almodóvar and Alejandro Amenábar as well as the further reaches of Spanish Gothic influence in the Twilight film series the book considers images and themes like the mad surgeon and the vulnerable body the role of the haunted house and the heritage biopics of Francisco de Goya

The Contemporary Spanish-American Novel Will H. Corral, Juan E. De Castro, Nicholas Birns, 2013-09-26 The Contemporary Spanish American Novel provides an accessible introduction to an important World literature While many of the authors covered Aira Bolaño Castellanos Moya Viquez are gaining an increasing readership in English and are frequently taught there is sparse criticism in English beyond book reviews This book provides the guidance necessary for a more sophisticated and contextualized understanding of these authors and their works Underestimated or unfamiliar Spanish American novels and novelists are introduced through conceptually rigorous essays Sections on each writer include the author's reception in their native country Spanish America and Spain biographical history a critical examination of their work including key themes and conceptual concerns translation history scholarly reception

The Contemporary Spanish American Novel offers an authoritative guide to a rich and varied novelistic tradition It covers all demographic areas including United States Latino authors in exploring the diversity of this literature and its major themes such as exile migration and gender representation

Spilling the Beans in Chicanolandia Frederick Luis Aldama, 2010-01-01 Since the 1980s a prolific second wave of Chicano writers and artists has tremendously expanded the range of genres and subject matter in Chicano literature and art Building on the pioneering work of their predecessors whose artistic creations were often tied to political activism and the civil rights struggle today's Chicano writers and artists feel free to focus as much on the aesthetic quality of their work as on its social content They use novels short stories poetry drama documentary films and comic books to shape the raw materials of life into art objects that cause us to participate empathetically in an increasingly complex Chicano identity and experience This book presents far ranging interviews with twenty one second wave Chicano poets fiction writers dramatists documentary filmmakers and playwrights Some are mainstream widely recognized creators while others work from the margins because of their sexual orientations or their controversial positions

Frederick Luis

Aldama draws out the artists and authors on both the aesthetic and the sociopolitical concerns that animate their work Their conversations delve into such areas as how the artists or writers life experiences have molded their work why they choose to work in certain genres and how they have transformed them what it means to be Chicano a in today s pluralistic society and how Chicano a identity influences and is influenced by contact with ethnic and racial identities from around the world

Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck,Vicente Rodríguez Ortega,2019-01-04 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today
