Contemporary Women Writing In The Other Americas Vol 1 Contemporary Women Writing In Latin America:

Adventurous Women in Contemporary American Historical Fiction Jeannette King, 2022-03-10 This book brings together for the first time nine groundbreaking historical novels by women from the United States Canada and Latin America united by their focus on female adventurers These novels introduce the neglected women of history real and imagined who accompanied their menfolk to the New World and enabled its settlement or colonisation Familiar novelists include Isabel Allende Audrey Thomas and Jane Smiley but this book also introduces less familiar writers who have produced richly textured and densely historical novels In addition to putting women back into history these writers engage with the literature of the past including the American canon of male fiction which dominated literary history before the intervention of feminist scholars The book begins with an introduction to the history of historical fiction and provides a theoretical historical and geographical context for the novels themselves Peruvian Rebel Kathleen Weaver, 2010-05-19 Examines the life and poetry of Magda Portal a major figure in Latin American revolutionary politics Includes a selection of poems available for the first Global Issues in Contemporary Hispanic Women's Writing Estrella time in English translation Provided by publisher Cibreiro, Francisca López, 2012-11-27 This collection explores the contributions of Hispanic women writers to ongoing Western debates on gender power ethics and the environment offering a wide range of essays that specifically portray the ways in which contemporary writers focus on issues of global impact in a deliberate and purposeful manner The contributors analyze texts pertaining to all literary genres examining a myriad of ethical philosophical and political perspectives including feminism postcolonial theories cultural and gender studies information age studies and ecofeminism The book visits continuities and discontinuities among Spanish and Latin American women with regards to the ways in which they approach writing as a political weapon to express ecological concerns to denounce social injustice to re articulate existing paradigms such as local versus global violence versus pacifism immigrant versus citizen and to raise consciousness about racist sexist and other discriminatory practices Such use of writing as an instrument of ethical and political exploration is underlined throughout the different articles in the volume as the authors emphasize pluralism social justice gender equality tolerance and political representation This book offers readers a broad perspective on the multiple ways in which Hispanic women writers are explicitly exploring the social political and economic realities of our era and integrating global perspectives and gender concerns into their writing highlighting the unprecedented level of sociopolitical engagement practiced by 20th and 21st century Hispanic women writers Most Scandalous Woman Myrna Ivonne Wallace Fuentes, 2017-10-28 In 1926 a young Peruvian woman picked up a gun wrested her infant daughter from her husband and liberated herself from the constraints of a patriarchal society Magda Portal a poet and journalist would become one of Latin America's most successful and controversial politicians In this richly nuanced portrayal of Portal historian Myrna Ivonne Wallace Fuentes chronicles the dramatic rise and fall of this prominent twentieth century revolutionary within the broader history of leftist movements gender politics and literary modernism in Latin America An early member of bohemian circles in Lima La Paz and Mexico City Portal distinguished herself as the sole female founder of the American Popular Revolutionary Alliance APRA A leftist but non Communist movement APRA would dominate Peru s politics for five decades Through close analysis of primary sources including Portal s own poetry correspondence and other writings Most Scandalous Woman illuminates Portal s pivotal work in creating and leading APRA during its first twenty years as well as her efforts to mobilize women as active participants in political and social change Despite her successes Portal broke with APRA in 1950 under bitter circumstances Wallace Fuentes analyzes how sexism in politics interfered with Portal s political ambitions explores her relationships with family members and male peers and discusses the ramifications of her scandalous love life In charting the complex trajectory of Portal s life and career Most Scandalous Woman reveals what moves people to become revolutionaries and the gendered limitations of their revolutionary alliances in an engrossing narrative that brings to life Latin American revolutionary politics

Women Writers of Latin America Magdalena García Pinto, 1991-11-01 What does it take for a woman to succeed as a writer In these revealing interviews first published in 1988 as Historias ntimas ten of Latin America's most important women writers explore this question with scholar Magdalena Garc a Pinto discussing the personal social and political factors that have shaped their writing careers The authors interviewed are Isabel Allende Albaluc a Angel Rosario Ferr Margo Glantz Sylvia Molloy Elvira Orph e Elena Poniatowska Marta Traba Luisa Valenzuela and Ida Vitale In intimate dialogues with each author Garc a Pinto draws out the formative experiences of her youth tracing the pilgrimage that led each to a distinguished writing career The writers also reflect on their published writings discussing the creative process in general and the motivating force behind individual works They candidly discuss the problems they have faced in writing and the strategies that enabled them to reach their goals While obviously of interest to readers of Latin American literature this book has important insights for students of women's literature and cultural studies as well as for aspiring writers Contemporary Women Writing in the Other Americas: Contemporary women writing in Latin America Georgiana M. Colvile.1996 The Keloids We Heal Sarah Soanirina Ohmer, 2025-05-13 The corporeal and spiritual healing in literature by women of colors can be seen to redefine modern thought and printed text Sarah Soanirina Ohmer traces the impact of colonization and enslavement on Black women and Black women's contributions to colonial nineteenth and twentieth century literature in the US Brazil and West Indies Her analysis unlocks the literature's power to heal through gut wrenching descriptions of wounds and thrilling passages of hope and liberation Drawing on intersectional analysis Ohmer focuses on portrayals of trauma and spirituality in works by Toni Morrison Concei o Evaristo Maryse Cond Gloria Anzald a the Quilombhoje poets and Mar a de los Reyes Castillo Ohmer compares literature from different countries along four thematic pathways ghosts mirrors naming and motherhood Her analysis unlocks the literature s power to heal through gut wrenching descriptions of wounds and thrilling passages of hope and liberation Throughout Ohmer weaves in her life story as a Black woman as she reflects on how colonialism racism sexism and capitalism have impacted her work traumas and faith journey

The Formation of Latin American Nations Thomas Ward, 2018-10-25 This pioneering work brings the pre Columbian and colonial history of Latin America home rather than starting out in Spain and following Columbus and the conquistadores as they discover New World peoples The Formation of Latin American Nations begins with the Mesoamerican and South American nations as they were before the advent of European colonialism and only then moves on to the sixteenth century Spanish arrival and its impact To form a clearer picture of precolonial Latin America Thomas Ward reads between the lines in the Chronicles of the Indies filling in the blanks with information derived from archaeology anthropology genetics and common sense logic Although he finds fascinating points of comparison among the K iche Maya in Central America the polities se or os of Colombia and the Chim of the northern Peruvian coast Ward focuses on two of the best known peoples the Nahua Aztec of Central Mexico and the Inka of the Andes His study privileges indigenous identified authors such as Diego Mu oz Camargo Fernando de Alva Ixtlilx chitl Inca Garcilaso de la Vega and Felipe Guaman Poma de Ayala while it also consults Spanish chroniclers like Hern n Cort s Bernal Diaz del Castillo Pedro Cieza de Le n and Bartolom de las Casas The nation forming processes that Ward theorizes feature two forms of cultural appropriation the horizontal in which nations appropriate people and customs from adjacent cultures and the vertical in which nations dig into their own past to fortify their concept of exceptionality In defining these processes Ward eschews the most common measure race instead opting for the Nahua altepetl the Inka panaka and the K iche amag His work thus approaches the nation both as the indigenous people conceptualized it and with terminology that would have been familiar to them before and after contact with the Spanish The result is a truly decolonial account of the formation and organization of Latin American nations one that puts the indigenous perspective at its center Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World Sarah E. Owens, Margaret E. Boyle, 2021-04-07 Recognizing the variety of health experiences across geographical borders Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World interrogates the concepts of health and healing between 1500 and 1800 Through an interdisciplinary approach to medical history gender history and the literature and culture of the early modern Atlantic World this collection of essays points to the ways in which the practice of medicine the delivery of healthcare and the experiences of disease and health are gendered The contributors explore how the medical profession sought to exert its power over patients determining standards that impacted conceptions of self and body and at the same time how this influence was mediated Using a range of sources the essays reveal the multiple and sometimes contradictory ways that early modern health discourse intersected with gender and sexuality as well as its ties to interconnected ethical racial and class driven concerns Health and Healing in the Early Modern Iberian World breaks new ground through its systematic focus on gender and sexuality as they relate to the delivery of healthcare the practice of medicine and the experiences of health and healing across early modern Spain and colonial Latin America
