Duke, 1989-11-22 The essays in this volume consider the state of current writing of the world's best Chinese women writers All the contributors relate their authors to the life and work of other contemporary Chinese women writers and compare work coming from PRC Taiwan and overseas Chinese The essays make a contribution to the fields of Modern Chinese literature and women's studies and although they are primarily intended to bear witness to the quality of women's writing they also attempt to elucidate the complex issues of Chinese women's lives in the contemporary world Seven Contemporary Chinese Women Writers Zhijuan Ru, 1982 Nativism Overseas Hsin-sheng C. Kao, 1993-07-01 This book examines five of the most influential Chinese born women writers of the post war era Nie Hualing Yu Lihua Chen Ruoxi Li Li and Zhong Xiaoyang They have become a dominating force in Chinese literature today although they presently reside outside their homeland This book raises a clear and consistent voice in line with the literature of exile and self discovery As these writers talk of the root the self and their social cultural and historical identities their varied voices share the unique characteristics of the literature of exile These women who continue to write in their native language envision themselves as the literary mediators between their lost past and their newly adopted homeland They compare each of these worlds in terms of the demons with which they have wrestled for identity recognition and freedom The book is of interest not only to those with a particular interest in the phenomenon of these Chinese exiled intellectual migrants and their role in the influence on the development of Chinese literature but to those who seek to understand the development of women's studies and world literature as a whole and the influence of East West literary relations in particular autobiographical biographical fictional and historical writing the book engages in a transcultural flow of ideas between western and indigenous Chinese feminisms Taking account of the accretions of social cultural geographic literary economic and political movements and trends cultural formations and ways of thinking it asks how the texts and the concepts they negotiate might be understood in the social and cultural spaces within China and how they might be interpreted differently elsewhere in the global locations in which they circulate The book argues that women centred writing in China has a direct bearing on global feminist theory and practice This critical study of selected genres and writers highlights the shifts in feminist perspectives within contemporary local and global cultural landscapes
