Understanding Leadership Perspectives Matthew R. Fairholm, Gilbert W. Fairholm, 2009-04-05 hand Indeed we do not easily move out of one mind set into another What we believe to be true given our particular experience often seems to be the only truth Often we need some outside force to trigger reevaluation and rethinking That triggering force to intellectual growth may be a new idea a new situation a new value a new boss or some other significant emotional event maybe even a new book The Research Foundation This book is founded on two pillars one a model of five leadership mind sets common in the last 100 years first presented in Gilbert W Fairholm s 1998a 1998b book Perspectives on Leadership From the Science of Management to its Spiritual Heart and two Matthew R Fairholm s 2002 dissertation Conceiving Leadership Exploring Five Perspectives of Leadership by Investigating the Conceptions and Experiences of Selected Metropolitan Washington Area Municipal Managers which analyzed and validated the perspectives model see the Appendix for more details The data collected confirm there are five distinct perspectives of leadership evident in the 100 year history of leadership study and practice The resulting model defines the five perspectives in terms of descriptions of leadership in action leadership tools and behaviors and the way leaders approach their relationship to followers The five perspectives are related hierarchically so that they progressively encompass a unique perspective of the leadership phenomenon Contemporary Issues in

Construction in Developing Countries George Ofori, 2012-06-26 Economic growth and socio economic development are particularly important for developing countries and the construction industry plays a central role in driving both of these Traditionally the issues faced have been assumed to be merely offshoots of those encountered in industrialised nations and are usually discussed only in this context In addition research in construction management and economics has generally failed to take proper account of the unique or highly emphasised characteristics of the industries in developing countries or their economic and social environment This volume challenges underlying assumptions and focuses on the distinct characteristics of construction in developing countries In so doing it considers the issues from the perspective of the developing countries themselves to present a strong contemporary picture for researchers It forms a companion volume to New Perspectives on Construction in Developing Countries which provides an update on the generic subjects relating to the construction industry in developing countries and covers new concepts and issues
