Content And Consciousness:

Content and Consciousness Daniel C. Dennett, 2010-04-05 Content and Consciousness is an original and ground breaking attempt to elucidate a problem integral to the history of Western philosophical thought the relationship of the mind and body In this formative work Dennett sought to develop a theory of the human mind and consciousness based on new and challenging advances in the field that came to be known as cognitive science This important and illuminating work is widely regarded as the book from which all of Dennett's future ideas developed It is his first explosive rebuttal of Cartesian dualism and one of the founding texts of philosophy of mind

Content and Consciousness Revisited Carlos Muñoz-Suárez, Felipe De Brigard, 2015-07-10 What are the grounds for the distinction between the mental and the physical What is it the relation between ascribing mental states to an organism and understanding its behavior Are animals and complex systems vehicles of inner evolutionary environments Is there a difference between personal and sub personal level processes in the brain Answers to these and other questions were developed in Daniel Dennett's first book Content and Consciousness 1969 where he sketched a unified theoretical framework for views that are now considered foundational in cognitive science and philosophy of mind Content and Consciousness Revisited is devoted to reconsider the ideas and ideals introduced in Dennett's seminal book by covering its fundamental concepts hypotheses and approaches and taking into account the findings and progress which have taken place during more than four decades This book includes original and critical contributions about the relations between science and philosophy the personal sub personal level distinction intelligence learning intentionality rationality propositional attitudes among other issues of scientific and philosophical interest Each chapter embraces an updated approach to several disciplines like cognitive science cognitive psychology philosophy of mind and cognitive psychiatry

Content, Consciousness, and Perception Conor McHugh, Ezio Di Nucci, 2009-01-14 What sort of thing is the mind And how can such a thing at the same time belong to the natural world represent the world give rise to our subjective experience and ground human knowledge Content Consciousness and Perception is an edited collection comprising eleven new contributions to the philosophy of mind written by some of the most promising young philosophers in the UK and Ireland The book is arranged into three parts Part I Concepts and Mental Content which begins with an attack by Hans Johann Glock on the representational theory of mind addresses the nature of mental representation Part II Consciousness and the Metaphysics of Mind concerns the prospects for a naturalistic metaphysics of the conscious mind Finally Part III entitled Perception pursues the project of giving a satisfactory philosophical account of perceptual experience The book begins with an introductory essay by the editors which provides an overview of the state of contemporary philosophy of mind locating the articles to follow within that context The individual chapters of Content Consciousness and Perception are professional contributions to their respective areas of interest to any philosopher of mind The volume as a whole is ideal for non specialists and students interested in getting to grips with the state of the art in contemporary philosophy of mind

The Reflexive Nature of Consciousness Greg Janzen, 2008 Combining phenomenological insights from Brentano and Sartre but also drawing on recent work on consciousness by analytic philosophers this book defends the view that conscious states are reflexive and necessarily so i e that they have a built in implicit awareness of their own occurrence such that the subject of a conscious state has an immediate non objectual acquaintance with it As part of this investigation the book also explores the relationship between reflexivity and the phenomenal or what it is like dimension of conscious experience defending the innovative thesis that phenomenal character is constituted by the implicit self awareness built into every conscious state This account stands in marked contrast to most influential extant theories of phenomenal character including qualia theories according to which phenomenal character is a matter of having phenomenal sensations and representationalism according to which phenomenal character is constituted by representational content
