Abu Dhabi A Portrait:

Abu Dhabi John Daniels,1974 Cultural Heritage, Transnational Narratives and Museum Franchising in Abu Dhabi Sarina Wakefield,2020-09-22 This publication contributes to new understandings of how heritage operates as a global phenomenon and the transnational heritage discourses that emerge from this process Taking such a view sees autochthonous and franchised heritage not as separate or opposing elements but as part of the same process of contemporary globalised identity making which contributes to the development of newly emergent cosmopolitan identities The book critically examines the processes that are involved in the franchising of heritage and its cultural effects It does so by examining the connections and tensions that emerge from combining autochthonous and franchised heritage in the United Arab Emirates providing a unique window in to the process of creating hybrid heritage in non Western contexts It develops new ideas about how this global phenomenon works how it might be characterised and how it influences and is itself affected by local forms of heritage By exploring how autochthonous and franchised heritage is produced in Abu Dhabi in the United Arab Emirates it becomes clear that Western dominated practices are often challenged and perhaps more importantly that new ways of understanding producing and living with heritage are being articulated in these previously marginal locations The book offers innovative insights into heritage as a transnational process exploring how it operates within local national and international identity concerns and debates It will appeal to scholars and students interested in critical heritage studies museums tourism cultural studies and Middle Eastern studies The Statesman's Year-Book 1977-78 J.

Portraiture in South Asia since the Mughals Crispin Branfoot,2018-06-30 One of the most remarkable artistic achievements of the Mughal Empire was the emergence in the early seventeenth century of portraits of identifiable individuals unprecedented in both South Asia and the Islamic world Appearing at a time of increasing contact between Europe and Asia portraits from the reigns of the great Mughal emperor patrons Akbar Jahangir and Shah Jahan are among the best known paintings produced in South Asia In the following centuries portraiture became more widespread in the visual culture of South Asia especially in the rich and varied traditions of painting but also in sculpture and later prints and photography This collection seeks to understand the intended purpose of a range of portrait traditions in South Asia and how their style setting and representation may have advanced a range of aesthetic social and political functions The chapters range across a wide historical period exploring ideals of portraiture in Sanskrit and Persian literature the emergence and political symbolism of Mughal portraiture through to the paintings of the Rajput courts sculpture in Tamil temples and the transformation of portraiture in colonial north India and post independence Pakistan This specially commissioned collection of studies from a strong list of established scholars and rising stars makes a significant contribution to South Asian history art and visual culture Shaikhdoms of Eastern Arabia P. Lienhardt,2001-03-20 This pioneering study captures the traditional social economic and political systems of the Arab sheikhdoms of the Gulf It represents a unique and in depth insight into the complex and varied cultural patterns of the Arabs Persians and the people of the East African Coast in the 1950s before the advent of oil wealth radically altered the style of life and expectations of the people living in these sheikhdoms In a compelling narrative Lienhardt discusses the tribal structure relations between men and women the economics of pearl fishing the growth of towns and the complex relationship between the ruling sheikhs and their subjects His findings offer a key to the understanding of the political system and the transition from the tribal to the class system Specialists on the Gulf and Middle East social historians and anthropologists will find a wealth of new evidence and analysis in this invaluable and accessible combination of history and anthropology Historical Dictionary of the Gulf Arab States Malcolm C. Peck,2007-12-20 The second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Gulf Arab States comes at a time when the world s attention is riveted on the Middle East The small states covered in this volume Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates UAE possess about 20 percent of the world s total oil reserves Beyond the strategic and economic importance conferred upon them by their vast oil reserves the Gulf Arab states are worthy of attention for the inherent interest of their history and culture No area of the world has yielded more revealing and exciting archaeological finds in the past few decades than these states Investigations have brought to light extensive evidence of an important culture as old as Egypt of the Pharaohs or ancient Babylon which was virtually unknown previously except through rare references in the records of other civilizations This expanded second edition covers the history of the five countries through a chronology broken down by country a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography and several hundred cross referenced dictionary entries on important persons places and events of each country Everything from the Abbasids to Zubarah is covered in this essential reference on this increasingly important region of the world All Things Arabia ,2020-11-16 By employing the innovative lenses of thing theory and material culture studies this collection brings together essays focused on the role played by Arabia s things from cultural objects to commodities to historical and ethnographic artifacts to imaginary things in creating an Arabian identity over time The Arabian identity that we convey here comprises both a fabulous Arabia that has haunted the European imagination for the past three hundred years and a real Arabia that has had its unique history culture and traditions outside the Orientalized narratives of the West All Things Arabia aims to dispel existing stereotypes and to stimulate new thinking about an area whose patterns of trade and cosmopolitanism have pollinated the world with lasting myths knowledge and things of beauty Contributors include Ileana Baird Marie Claire Bakker Joseph Donica Holly Edwards Yannis Hadjinicolaou Victoria Hightower Jennie MacDonald Kara McKeown Rana Al Ogayyel Ceyda Oskay Chrysavgi Papagianni James Redman Eran Segal H lya Ya c o lu and William Gerard Zimmerle After the Sheikhs Christopher Michael Davidson,2015 Noted Gulf expert Christopher Davidson contends that the collapse of these kings emirs and sultans is going to happen and was always going to The Development of An Art

History in the UAE Sophie Kazan Makhoul, 2024-10-15 This book draws together an oral and visual art history of a country that is extremely rich in culture and history but that is often overlooked or underestimated By observing the country's history and visual culture and the artistic practices of select artists from the UAE it considers the development of contemporary art from the UAE This will increase accessibility to art by Emiratis and underline its wider relevance There is a dearth of literature on contemporary art by Emiratis and this may be one of the reasons contemporary art from the UAE is underrepresented globally In order to help the reader better understand art from the UAE this book traces the country's historical make up its culture and contemporary art tradition through oral histories based on interviews with a wide variety of artists and people working in the art industries It also explores this development using global art discourses that are relevant to art produced in the UAE today This book also considers how cultural and artistic identities are formed and explores the political and socio-economic interests in the country that have stimulated art practices and appreciation For so long an exclusively Western narrative has dominated Art and popular media portrays the Gulf's accomplishments in development and modernity with suspicion Thanks to the UAE's espousal of the Internet and online communities over the last decade this book is particularly timely Following the pandemic a wider understanding of global art discourses values and perceptions are increasingly welcomed Art from the UAE bridges the local and the global giving a voice and a visual presence to a country's contemporary art tradition that has been widely overlooked The UAE has a distinct visual arts tradition that relates to a broader and inclusive understanding of art centered on development and change

The Rise and Fall of OPEC in the Twentieth Century Giuliano Garavini, 2019-07-25 The Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries OPEC is one of the most recognizable acronyms among international organizations It is mainly associated with the oil shock of 1973 when prices of petroleum quadrupled and industrialized countries and consumers were forced to face the limits of their development model This is the first history of OPEC and of its members written by a professional historian It carries the reader from the formation of the first petrostate in the world Venezuela in the late 1920s to the global ascent of petrostates and OPEC during the 1970s to their crisis in the late 1980s and early 1990s Formed in 1960 OPEC was the first international organization of the Global South It was perceived as acting as the economic spearhead of the Global South and acquired a role that went far beyond the realm of oil politics Petrostates such as Venezuela Nigeria Algeria Saudi Arabia Iraq and Iran were and continue to be key regional actors and their enduring cooperation defying wide political and cultural differences and even wars speaks to the centrality of natural resources in the history of the twentieth century and to the underlying conflict between producers and consumers of these natural resources

Full of Your Glory Teresa Berger, 2019-12-05 2020 Catholic Press Association honorable mention award for faith and science This collection of essays explores the rich and diverse intersections between the world of liturgy and the worlds of creation and the cosmos The intersections highlighted here include biblical historical visual and musical materials as well as contemporary theological and pastoral challenges for worship today The essays gathered in this volume were first presented at the 2018 Yale Institute of Sacred Music Liturgy Conference and are here made available to a wider audience These essays are responses to the unprecedented attention to ecological and cosmological concerns which call for sustained engagement by scholars and practitioners of liturgy

Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel, Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, 2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region s widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represent

Destination Detroit Rashmi Luthra,2024-01-04 Deindustrialized cities in the United States are at a particular crossroads when it comes to the contest over refugees Do refugees represent opportunity or danger These cities are in desperate need to stem population and resource loss problems that an influx of refugees could seemingly help address However the cities are simultaneously dealing with local communities that are already feeling internally displaced by economic and technological flux For these existing citizens the prospect of incoming refugee populations can be perceived as a threat to financial cultural and personal security Few U S locations provide a more vivid case study of this fight than Metro Detroit where competing interest groups are waging war over the meaning of the figure of the refugee This book dives deeply into the discourse on refugees occurring among various institutions in Metro Detroit The way in which local institutions talk about refugees gives us vital clues as to how they are negotiating competing pressures and how the city overall is negotiating competing imperatives Indeed this local discourse gives us a crucial glimpse into how U S cities are defining and redefining themselves today The figure of the refugee becomes a slate on which groups with varied interests write their stories aspirations and fears Consequently we can figure out from local refugee discourses the ongoing question of what it means to be a Metro Detroiter and by extension what it means to be a revitalizing U S city in this age

The United Arab Emirates Kristian Coates Ulrichsen,2016-12-01 Led by Dubai and Abu Dhabi the UAE has become deeply embedded in the contemporary system of international power politics and policy making Only an independent state since 1971 the seven emirates that constitute the UAE represent not only the most successful Arab federal experiment but also the most durable However the 2008 financial crisis and its aftermath underscored the continuing imbalance between Abu Dhabi and Dubai and the five northern emirates Meanwhile the post 2011 security crackdown revealed the acute sensitivity of officials in Abu Dhabi to social inequalities and economic disparities across the federation The United Arab Emirates Power Politics and Policymaking charts the various processes of state formation and political and economic development that have enabled the UAE to emerge as a significant regional power and major player in the post Arab Spring reordering of Middle East and North African Politics as well as the closest partner of the US in military and security affairs in the region It also explores the seamier underside of that growth in terms of the condition of migrant workers recent interventions in Libya and Yemen and latterly one of the highest rates of political prisoners per capita in the world The book concludes with a discussion of the likely policy challenges that the UAE will face in coming years especially as it moves towards its fiftieth anniversary in 2021 Providing a comprehensive and accessible assessment of the UAE this book will be a vital resource for students and scholars of International Relations and Middle East Studies as well as non specialists with an interest in the United Arab Emirates and its global position
