Motives for Fiction Robert Alter, 1984 For many serious readers Robert Alter writes in his preface the novel still matters and I have tried here to suggest some reasons why that should be so In his wide ranging discussion Alter examines the imitation of reality in fiction to find out why mimesis has become problematic yet continues to engage us deeply as readers Alter explores very different sorts of novels from the self conscious artifices of Sterne and Nabokov to what seem to be more realistic texts such as those of Dickens Flaubert John Fowles and the early Norman Mailer Attention is also given to such individual critics as Edmund Wilson and Alfred Kazin and to current critical schools In Alter's essays a particular book or movement or juxtaposition of writers provides the occasion for the exploration of a general intellectual issue The scrutiny of well chosen passages the joining of images or themes or ideas the associative and intuitive processes that lead to the right phrase and the right loop of syntax for the matter at hand all these come together unexpectedly to illuminate both the text in question and the general issue Recent discussions of mimesis in fiction generally proceed from a single thesis By contrast Motives for Fiction offers an empirical approach attempting to define mimesis in its various guises by careful critical readings of a heterogeneous sampling of literary texts Intelligent and good humored the book is also old fashioned enough to wonder whether mimesis might not be a task or responsibility to which much contemporary fiction has not proved entirely adequate
