Dad And I:

Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections

At the Intersection of Disability and Drama John Michael Sefel, Amanda Slamcik Lassetter, Jill Summerville, 2021-04-02 Cripples ain t supposed to be happy sings Anita Hollander balancing on her single leg and grinning broadly This moment from her multi award winning one woman show Still Standing captures the essence of this theatre anthology Hollander and nineteen other playwright performers craftily subvert and smash stereotypes about how those within the disability community should look think and behave Utilizing the often conflicting tools of Critical Disability Studies and Medical

Humanities these plays and their accompanying essays approach disability as a vast intersectional demographic which ties individuals together less by whatever impairment difference or non normative condition they experience and more by their daily need to navigate a world that wasn't built for them From race gender and sexuality to education dating and pandemics these plays reveal there is no aspect of human life that does not in some way intersect with disability Hell and Back Optimum Vizhan,2017-05-12 This is my Hell and Back story I was in two wars one with Korea and one with my wife My story starts during the Great Depression of the Twentieth Century on my fathers self sustaining farm Before the age of five my familys pet sheep rammed my forehead into the tractors steel wheel leaving a visible V scar on my head for the rest of my life This V was proof that God would give me victory over hell throughout my life Be it near death experiences on the farm in war driving vehicles building homes marriage heart attack multiple bypasses and the lost of my free movie sweet heart I learned how to be at peace with myself and God This peace allowed me to face my hells head on witness God walking me through them establish me again and take me through the next season of my life My Story finishes with it being a navigational inspiration tool that guides us and the generations to come through our hell and backs Included are my Hell and Back Survival Tips™ that guided me through my two wars Plus the Law of Unconditional Love I discovered while in my two wars

Gangsters, Guns & Me - Now I'm in Eastenders, but once I was on the run. This is my true story Jamie Foreman,2012-03-05 Jamie Foreman is one of Britain's most iconic actors He is also the son of Britain's most notorious gangster Freddie Foreman Jamie's life has been anything but ordinary Right from the start his world was one of contrast and contradiction he grew up surrounded by London's criminal elite living by their code of honour and respect yet he himself was brought up to be a straight goer The backdrop of his home life was to differ greatly from his time at school as at seven years old Jamie found himself in the unlikely surroundings of a boarding school The happiness of his family and school life was snatched from Jamie when his father was sentenced to ten years in prison for his involvement in the killing of Jack The Hat McVitie The subsequent years saw Jamie without the father he adored and the whole family was put under enormous strain At 14 Jamie decided that his passion was for acting and having been encouraged by Barbara Windsor he discovered yet another new environment at the Italia Conti Stage School Jamie thrived in the acting world and was soon enjoying success on both stage and screen By the time of his dad's release from prison Jamie had carved a straight career for himself but after years apart there was plenty of lost time to make up for Soon he was dividing his time between acting and assisting with Freddie's business Before long though life took a surprising turn when a drug deal his father was heavily involved in went tragically wrong and he was forced to go on the run to America with his dad which marked the start of a whole new adventure A truly fascinating story of a unique life From being babysat by the Kray Twins to his life changing meeting with Lawrence Olivier Jamie's is a compelling tale of a boy becoming a man of a father lost and found and nearly lost again and of the adventure violence and tenderness that forged an unbreakable father son relationship Hunter-trader-trapper ,1922
