Workplace Learning John Bratton,Jean C.

Helms Mills,Peter Sawchuk,2003-12-01 Published Under the Garamond Imprint This innovative book is concerned with the power relations complexities and contradictions in the paid workplace Workplace learning is not value free or politically neutral and cannot be studied independently of the political economy of work Workplace Learning is part of a growing body of work that offers an alternative to mainstream approaches to workplace learning recognizing that power relations politics and conflicts of interest all shape learning The authors emphasize the lived experiences of working people avoiding prescriptive accounts and uncritical Human Resource Development views Comments Here is a map through contested and largely uncharted terrain from the foreword by D Arcy Martin

Facing China as a New Global Superpower Huhua

Cao,Jeremy Paltiel,2015-11-07 This book brings together diverse perspectives from the newest generation of scholars from Canada and China to better understand China in the 21st century It examines China s socio political structure its particular relationship with Canada and interaction with the international community and discusses how to overcome the ideological differences between the two countries to establish positive and sustainable Canada China bilateral relations for the future Importantly the perspectives are from young authors with a different relationship to China and Canada than more established authors This compilation helps breathe new life into the study of Sino Canada relations from both countries and to reassess and re frame issues related to China in the 21st century

International Perspectives on Competence Development

Knud Illeris,2012-07-26 In today s complex and ever changing world it has become obvious that even highly developed knowledge and skills are no longer sufficient to meet new challenges situations and problems facing individuals organisations and nations This raises an enormous and potentially confusing issue for educators and trainers how is it possible to generate and assess abilities to deal with challenges and problems unknown or not even in existence at the time when the learning takes place The book builds on the experiences and insights of its expert contributors all of whom have worked with studied and analysed competences and how they are developed Their collected work presents Comprehensive explanation and analysis of the concept and nature of competence Specific contexts of competence development e g in the public sector or small business Competence development as a national strategy for building an up to date education and training system With chapters from around the world including the UK USA Canada Australia Scandinavia this book illustrates in an engaging and convincing manner the importance and innovative nature of the concept of competences resulting in a varied differentiated and empathetic guide to the topic It will appeal to educators both in academic and management circles as well as students and administrators of education
