Handbook is on North American Canada US science education and the scholarship that most closely supports this program. The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in North American rather than international context. The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education. The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts. The approach allows readers review what has been done and accomplished, what is missing and what might be done next.
