Behind The Curtain BdsM Crime Series 1:

Behind the Mormon Curtain Steve Cuno, 2021-11-16 I MAKE A LOT OF MONEY AS A CALL GIRL wasn't the answer author Steve Cuno expected when he asked a new acquaintance how she planned to capitalize her start up business. Wait hold on he thought. In Salt Lake City Home to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints the Mormon Church where all it takes to become the object of steamy gossip is for a neighbor to see you take a sip of coffee. In a religion where nonmarital sex is second in seriousness to murder. You've no idea the people I could get in trouble she told him. She'd entertained politicians police officers judges defense lawyers prosecutors doctors all of them married almost all of them practicing Mormons. Many were highly visible highly regarded leaders in the faith. So began Cuno's behind the scenes investigation into Salt Lake City's prostitution industry. Over the course of three years he interviewed prostitutes johns police officers social workers and massage parlor owners and uncovered a surprising underside to the Mormon Church's carefully cultivated image of wholesomeness and family values. He found that Salt Lake's prostitutes sex workers or providers as they prefer to be known don't live in the illusory experience they create for their clients. Many are multilingual and hold college degrees. They fix meals drive kids to school help with homework handle household chores socialize with others in the community have love lives of their own and yes go to church sometimes with the very people who sneak out to meet them. With wit and sensitivity Behind the Mormon Curtain takes a deep dive into the quintessential American religion and the world's oldest profession as Cuno tells the story of what he discovered how he discovered it and what it reveals not just about Mormons but about us all. Brown, 2021-08-23 In Indirect Subjects Matthew H Brown analyzes the content of the prolific Nigerian film industry's mostly direct to video movies alongside local practices of production and circulation to show how screen media play spatial roles in global power relations. Scrutinizing the deep structural and aesthetic relationship between Nollywood as the industry is known and Nigerian state television Brown tracks how several Nollywood films in ways similar to both state television programs and colonial cinema productions invite local spectators to experience liberal capitalism not only as a form of exploitation but as a set of expectations about the future. This mode of address which Brown refers to as periliberalism sustains global power imbalances by locating viewers within liberalism but distancing them from its processes and benefits. Locating the wellspring of this hypocrisy in the British Empire's practice of indirect rule Brown contends that culture industries like Nollywood can sustain capitalism by isolating ordinary African people whose labor and consumption fuel it from its exclusive privileges. Catalogue of the Books in the Department of English Prose Fiction which Belong to
