of his American Baptist kind to attempt to integrate these two models As a Baptist standing at the political cultural and theological crossroads of America Furman blended Edwardsean and confessional Calvinism Regular and Separate Baptist traditions and a host of other elements into his theology laying the groundwork for an entire generation of Southern Baptists who followed in his theological footsteps Expounding the Gospel and Law of God—Exegesis and Sermonic Development George J. Gatgounis,2022-06-03 Exegesis and Sermonic Development The Path from Text to Sermon by the Rev Dr George Gatgounis Esq provides in depth guidance to producing sermons that are true to the biblical text so as to bring nourishment to our failing and feeble Church It s one of the few exegetical works that starts with the spiritual consecration of the preacher since the exegetical process must first begin with communion with the Holy Spirit This work is an encyclopedia of sermonic development The Moral Governmental Theory of Atonement Obbie Tyler Todd,2021-03-16 The American moral governmental theory of the atonement MGT was arguably the most contextualized doctrine of atonement in the history of the Protestant tradition Hewn from the theology of Jonathan Edwards and engineered to address the theological political philosophical moral and even economic milieu in the early republic MGT became the doctrinal centerpiece of the first indigenous American school of Calvinism As a result it stands as a kind of theological time capsule to the people and principles that shaped the tumultuous period between the first Great Awakening and the Civil War when it flourished in America For over a century in the Anglo American world the doctrine of atonement was under heavy construction in the broader Reformed community By endowing new meaning to old theological terms like imputation substitution justice punishment and even atonement MGT represents a theological watermark of sorts in Reformed dogmatics defining its limits testing its boundaries and demanding a level of precision from today s theologians This book offers a contextualization distillation and conversation with this Edwardsean doctrine of atonement The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim,2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross
