

Peter Blake The architecture of Ulrich Franzen

Birkhäuser

An abstract architectural drawing in white lines on a black background. The drawing features several thick, vertical rectangular columns of varying heights and widths. These columns are interconnected by horizontal lines and beams, creating a complex, three-dimensional structure. The perspective is from a low angle, looking up at the columns, which gives them a sense of height and scale. The overall composition is minimalist and geometric, emphasizing the interplay of light and shadow on the surfaces of the architectural elements.
