Architecture For People The Complete Works Of Hassan Fathy:

An Architecture for People James Steele,1997 Hassan Fathy is the most influential Third World architect of the 20th century This book is the first comprehensive critical view of his entire output which comprises buildings found all over the world from Egypt to India to New Mexico An Architecture for People James Steele,1997-06-01 Egyptian architect Hassan Fathy s reputation for a modern humane architecture has grown to cult status Architects worldwide are recognizing that his revival of ancient mud brick building techniques has begun to revolutionize modern thinking not just in Egypt in the 3rd World but throughout the developed world where sustainability energy conserv n the responsible use of natural resources have all become vital concerns Fathy s buildings are found all over the world Steele s research in Cairo in Greece uncovered many previously undocumented projects New material photos plans Fathy s gouaches is included along with a comprehensive illustrated chronology of his work Hassan Fathy the Piercing Star James Steele,2022-07 Previous studies of Hassan Fathy have sought to present his ideas by focusing on his architecture alone without exploring the personality or intentions of the extremely complex individual behind the buildings Having spent the majority of his life as an educator for example he self identified as a teacher rather than an architect treating the tectonic language that he invented in his search for authenticity as a didactic medium by which to deliver his lessons In order to delve more deeply into the existential reality of his multifaceted identity this comprehensive publication about the famous Egyptian architect separates out and specifically examines each of the four major aspects of his persona in great detail his life story his writings his architectural projects and the people places and things that inspired him To do so this project consists of a boxed set of two Volumes each Volume further divided into two parts Volume I entitled Biography and Writings includes Part I A Transcendent Life an extensive personal profile of Fathy from his birth in Alexandria in 1900 to his death in Cairo in 1989 and Part II A Hassan Fathy Reader which contains a voluminous edited selection of his articles papers letters plays and fables as well as an annotated bibliography of his entire personal library Volume II entitled Architecture and Inspirations is also in two parts Part III A Living Architecture catalogues his entire architectural Oeuvre for the first time and is fully illustrated with many original drawings and new photographs with an extensive commentary on each work Part IV Inspirations includes each of the many architectural historical cultural and philosophical sources that stoked his vivid imagination examining the influences that emerge in a myriad of ways in his architecture Following a Dedication and extensive list of Acknowledgements this historic set will begin with a general Introduction Each part of these two volumes will then contain its own Introduction and Conclusion as well as complete Notes and Bibliography sections relevant to the specific material covered in each The two volume set will also have a complete Index covering all four sections Hassan Fathy and Continuity in Islamic Architecture Ahmad Hamid,2010 A thought provoking and richly illustrated look at tradition and innovation in the work of the world renowned architect Hassan Fathy Abdel-moniem El-Shorbagy,2019-01-28 The Egyptian architect and master builder

Hassan Fathy 1900 1989 was one of the first architects to found a new approach based on a conception of interpreting forms and masses from the past He was unique in believing that this language could exist alongside that of an aggressively modern one that cut all ties with the past In addition to Fathy's tireless efforts to establish his traditional approach he struggled to improve the housing and living environments of the poor especially in the Third World Fathy's efforts were acknowledged by several awards including the Chairman's Prize Aga Khan Awards for Architecture 1980 the Right Livelihood Award 1980 and the first Gold Medal of the International Union of Architects 1984 International Medievalism and Popular Culture Louise D'Arcens, Andrew Lynch, 2014-04-18 Today medievalism is increasingly intelligible as a cultural lingua franca produced in trans and international contexts with a view to reaching popular international audiences some of mass scope This book offers new perspectives on international relations and how global concerns are made available through contemporary medievalist texts It questions how research in medievalism may help us rethink the terms of internationalism and globalism within popular cultures ideologies and political formations It investigates how the diverse media of medievalism print film and television arts and crafts fashion digital media clubs and fandom affect its cultural meaning and circulation and its social function and engage questions of desire gender and identity construction As a whole International Medievalism and Popular Culture differs from those studies which have concentrated on imaginative appropriations of the middle ages for domestic cultural contexts It investigates rather how contemporary cultures engage with medievalism to map and model ideas of the international the trans national the cosmopolitan and the global This book includes examples from Europe Britain North America Australia and the Arab world It discusses the formation and the impact of popular medievalism in the globalised worlds of Braveheart Disney and Harry Potter but it also explores how the contemporary medieval imaginary generates international cultural perspectives for example in considering Middle Eastern reception of Ridley Scott's Kingdom of Heaven the Byzantinism of Julia Kristeva and Hedley Bull's postnationalist new medievalism International Medievalism in Popular Culture is an important contribution to medieval studies cultural studies and historical studies It will be of value to undergraduate postgraduate and academic readers as well as to all interested in popular culture or medievalism

Interdisciplinary Explorations of Postmortem Interaction Estella Weiss-Krejci, Sebastian Becker, Philip Schwyzer, 2022-06-23 In the present as in the past the dead have been deployed to promote visions of identity as well as ostensibly wider human values Through a series of case studies from ancient Egypt through prehistoric historic and present day Europe this book discusses what is constant and what is locally and historically specific in our ways of interacting with the remains of the dead their objects and monuments Postmortem interaction encompasses not only funerary rituals and intergenerational engagement with forebears but also concerns encounters with the dead who died centuries and millennia ago Drawing from a variety of disciplines such as archaeology bioarchaeology literary studies ancient Egyptian philology and sociocultural anthropology this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of the ways in which the dead are able to transcend temporal distances and engender social relationships Until quite recently literary sciences and archaeology were generally regarded as incommensurable in their aims methodologies and source material Although archaeologists and literary critics have been increasingly willing to borrow concepts and terminology from the other discipline this book is one examples of a genuinely collaborative endeavor This is an open access book The Modern Neighbors of Tutankhamun Kees van der Spek,2011-02-01 Until their recent demolition the colorful mud brick hamlets of al Qurna village situated among the Noble Tombs of the Theban Necropolis on the Luxor West Bank were home to a vibrant community Inhabiting a place of intensive Egyptological research for over two centuries it was inevitable that Qurnawis should become part of the history of Egyptology and the development of archaeological practice in the Theban Necropolis But they have mostly been regarded as laborers for the excavation teams or dealers in the illicit antiquities trade The modern people inhabiting the ancient burial grounds have themselves rarely been considered By demonstrating the multiplicity of economic activities that are carried out in al Qurna this study counters the villagers stereotypical representation as tomb robbers and restores an understanding of who they are as people living their lives in the shadow of valued cultural heritage Rule of Experts Timothy Mitchell,2002-11-18 Publisher Description

Cities and Cultures Malcolm Miles,2007-04-26 Cities and Cultures is a critical account of the relations between contemporary cities and the cultures they produce and which in turn shape them The book questions received ideas of what constitutes a city s culture through case studies in which different kinds of culture the arts cultural institutions and heritage distinctive ways of life are seen to be differently used in or affected by the development of particular cities The book does not mask the complexity of this but explains it in ways accessible for undergraduates The book begins with introductory chapters on the concepts of a city and a culture the latter in the anthropological sense as well as denoting the arts citing cases from modern literature The book then moves from a critical account of cultural production in a metropolitan setting to the idea that a city too is produced through the characteristic ways of life of its inhabitants The cultural industries are scrutinised for their relation to such cultures as well as to city marketing and attention is given to the European Cities of Culture initiative and to the hybridity of contemporary urban cultures in a period of globalisation and migration In its penultimate chapter the book looks at incidental cultural forms and cultural means to identify formation and in its final chapter examines the permeability of urban cultures and cultural forms Sources are introduced positions clarified and contrasted and notes given for selective further reading Playing on the two meanings of culture Miles takes a unique approach by relating arguments around these meanings to specific cases of urban development today The book includes both critical comment on a range of literatures being a truly inter disciplinary study and the outcome of the author s field research into urban cultures Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta,2024-02-20 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California

Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Ways of Seeking Emily Drumsta traces the influence of detective fiction on the twentieth century Arabic novel Theorizing a poetics of investigation she shows how these novels far from staging awe inspiring feats of logical deduction mock the truth seeking practices on which modern exercises of colonial and national power are often premised Their narratives return to the archives of Arabic folklore Islamic piety and mysticism to explore less coercive ways of knowing seeing and seeking Drumsta argues that scholars of the Middle East neglect the literary at their peril overlooking key critiques of colonialism from the intellectuals who shaped and responded through fiction to the transformations of modernity This book ultimately tells a different story about the novel's place in the constellation of Arab modernism modeling an innovative method of open ended inquiry based on the literary texts themselves

Twenty-Five+ Buildings Every Architect Should Understand Simon Unwin, 2023-11-03 The underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experience how it can help us make sense of the world and contribute to our sense of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through a wide range of case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading for every architect With the addition of numerous shorter analyses this new edition covers an even greater range of architectural ideas providing students and architects with further inspiration for exploration in their own design work Architects live by ideas But where do they come from And how do they shape buildings There is no one right way to do architecture This book illustrates many Its aim is to explore the rich diversity of architectural creativity by analysing a wide range of examples to extract the ideas behind them Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is a companion to Simon Unwin s Analysing Architecture the Universal Language of Place Making most recent edition 2021 and part of the trilogy which also includes his Exercises in Architecture Learning to Think as an Architect second edition 2022 Together the three books offer an introduction to the workings of architecture providing for the three aspects of learning theory examples and practice Twenty Five Buildings focusses on analysing examples using the methodology offered by Analysing Architecture which operates primarily through the medium of drawing An underlying theme of Twenty Five Buildings Every Architect Should Understand is the relationship of architecture to the human being how it frames our lives and orchestrates our experiences how it can help us give form to the world and contributes to our senses of identity and place Exploring these dimensions through case studies that illustrate the rich diversity of twentieth and twenty first century architecture this book is essential reading and hopefully an inspiration for every architect In this new edition supplementary analysis and discussion has been added to each of the twenty five case studies drawing attention to their influences from and on other architects A number of extra shorter analyses have been included too following the practice of presenting extra small dishes interspersed among main courses in high end restaurants These additional short analyses account for the sign after Twenty Five in the title of this edition and double the number of buildings analysed to around fifty

Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt, Kishwar Rizvi, 2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices
