a guide to school counseling but rather a conversation starter on the challenges that school counselors face on a daily basis. From cyber sexting to unmotivated students to anxiety disorders, school counselors must be ready for the unexpected. Throughout the sixteen case studies, readers will be guided through therapies, strategies, and solutions from a school counselor's perspective. Readers are given a first-hand look into the rationale, biases, and experiences that guide the counseling process. From the perspective of a school counselor, readers will be vividly drawn into the varying situations and approaches for each case study, guided through various therapy approaches and given questions for discussion in small groups or large classrooms. This book will help train better school counselors as the audience will be presented with current situations and problems that school counselors face in the twenty-first century.

Postmodern Career Counseling Louis A. Busacca, Mark C. Reh fuss, 2016-06-10. This practiced-based handbook describes postmodern career counseling models and methods designed to meet clients' diverse needs in today's challenging work environment. Readers will gain a solid understanding of the theoretical underpinnings of postmodern career counseling and learn practical approaches to counseling clients of various ages and backgrounds on occupational choice and other issues such as coping with developmental tasks, career transitions, and work traumas. Drawing directly from their experiences with clients, career counseling experts link theory to practice in 17 application chapters that demonstrate the process of postmodern career assessment and intervention embedded in culture and context. Multicultural case vignettes and a Practical Application Guide in each of these chapters facilitate classroom learning and discussion.
