suggests how John's Gospel might motivate and resource a Christian response to the ecological crisis Margaret Daly Denton shows how aptly Mary Magdalene recognized the risen Jesus as the gardener Jn 20:15 completing his day's work in the garden of the Earth The Johannine story of Jesus offers his present day followers a paradigm with considerable potential to inspire Earth care sustainable living and commitment to eco justice The Fourth Evangelist believes that Jesus fulfils the Jewish hope for a restoration envisaged as a return of humankind to Eden Keeping this theme continually in mind Daly Denton reads the gospel with sensitivity to the role of the more than human world in the narrative and with particular attention to the scriptural underlay that repeatedly brings this world into the foreground The commentary begins with an exploration of the memories and associations that the garden setting would have evoked for the intended audience It then follows the gospel's spiral path that eventually leads to the garden of Mary's encounter Each chapter concludes by asking how believers might do God's work Jn 6:28 in today's ecologically damaged world and by offering practical suggestions indicative of the reflection that readers of the commentary will be able to do in their own setting
