Banned Questions About the Bible Christian D Piatt, 2011-03-31 From Christian Piatt When I was a teenager my youth minister threw a bible at my head for asking questions Too often for various reasons people don't have the opportunity to ask the hard questions they have about faith religion salvation and the bible And when questions are left unanswered in communities of faith people either seek answers elsewhere or lose interest all together The purpose of the series is to collect the most compelling and challenging questions from various theological areas and pose them to a panel of experts who are challenged with responding in two hundred words or less in plain English This volume addresses challenging or controversial questions about scripture collected from people on Facebook MySpace Twitter and other social networking media Respondents include theology professors clergy lay leaders liberals conservatives and voices representing a spectrum of views The idea behind the books is not so much to provide definitive answers as it is to stimulate thought reflection and discussion By offering multiple perspectives readers have the opportunity to arrive at their own questions Better they come to understand that questioning faith is not taboo but rather that it can be at the foundation of a strong and growing faith The directive given to each respondent guided them to be concise and to speak in plain language but also not to rely exclusively on the Bible says it justifications or to wax abstract or overly intellectual Instead they write from personal experience as much as possible and provide real life contexts that will allow the average seeker or churchgoer to apply such ideas to their daily lives Tennis and America, Thank You Freddie Botur,2013-07-08 Jack Kramer Freddie nobody wants us 1966 In 1966 when I had the Thirty Fourth Street armory Jack Kramer the world famous player and promoter approached me and asked me to put up fifteen thousand dollars in prize money for a tournament he wanted to organize early in 1967 He had eight professionals set to go but no place to host the tournament and no prize money to offer Freddie nobody wants us Kramer said Madison Square Garden does not want us White Plains does not want us I could not believe that a great and famous player like Jack Kramer was coming to me an unknown immigrant to ask if I would be interested in promoting the tournament I thought about it for a little less than a minute knew instantly that we could accommodate nearly four thousand people in the armory and determined that I would make it happen A few days later I received a letter of confirmation from his manager Mr Wills The players he was proposing were the most famous names in the game We just needed to come up with the prize money Since we did not have anyone who could sponsor us I put up five thousand dollars myself and asked two of my friends Lieberman vice president of a gas company and Zdenek Capek the engineer friend who helped me design the roll up mats for the armory to invest five thousand dollars each I can still name the singles draw from the top down Rod Laver Fred Stolle Dennis Ralston Butch Buchholz Pancho Gonzalez Pierre Barthes Mike Davis Andres Gimeno Pancho Segura and Cliff Drysdale No one was willing to underwrite the event Comedy Quotes from the Movies Larry Langman,Paul Gold,2001-05-29

Clever repartee double entendres punch lines and many other variations of humor have been a staple of movie dialogue since the advent of talkies Collected here are over 4 000 of the best comedic lines from the movies The compilers of this book have tried to bring together some of the funniest wittiest and most outrageous snatches of dialogue on film over a sixty year time period For each entry the authors set the quotation in context provide the name of the actor or actress the name of the movie and the year of release The quotations are arranged by a broad range of categories such as politics food and eating gambling and many others A title index and a name index follow the body of the book Stay Positive Jon Gordon,Daniel
