

Aristotle's concept of the soul differs from Plato's dualistic view in that it:

* 1 point

- ☐ Asserts that the soul and body are separate entities, with the soul existing independently of the body.
- ☒ Views the soul as an activity of the body, integral to its functions, and not as a separate, immortal entity.
- ☐ Posits that the soul is entirely material and does not influence intellectual or moral capacities.
- ☐ Regards the soul as a passive receiver of knowledge rather than an active participant in rational activities.
