Architecture Of Soo Chan:

SCDA Robert Powell, 2004 Malaysian born Soo Chan Chan Soo Khian is among the new breed of Southeast Asian architects whose architecture is not only modern and refreshing but also reflects the spirit of Asia Having studied and trained in the US Soo Chan returned to Asia in t SCDA ARCHITECTS II : THE ARCHITECTURE OF SOO CHAN. Soo Chan, 2013 The Architecture of Soo Chan Robert Powell, 2004* SCDA Architects II Soo Chan, 2013 An exploration of the innovative designs of world renowned architectural firm SCDA SCDA Architects II Soo Chan, 2014-01-01 Presented in a luxurious slipcase with a vellum insert signed by architect Soo Chan this revised edition features an enticing selection of recent projects by Singapore based firm SCDA Architects a world leader in residential and commercial design With Reference Soo K. Chan, Julia van den Hout, 2022-10-27 In With Reference Soo Chan of SCDA explores the fundamentals of architecture going back to inspirations and precedents examining basic building blocks and core values in search of a universal spatial vocabulary for contemporary practice As practice becomes increasingly globalized and fragmented the applied design language has to absorb nuances of climate craft culture and place Through a rich diagrammatic analysis of seminal projects by SCDA as well as masters of architecture around the world With Reference argues for the revival of a rule based design language A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, 2016-04-28 A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture traces the origins of tropical architecture to nineteenth century British colonial architectural knowledge and practices It uncovers how systematic knowledge and practices on building and environmental technologies in the tropics were linked to military technologies medical theories and sanitary practices and were manifested in colonial building types such as military barracks hospitals and housing It also explores the various ways these colonial knowledge and practices shaped post war techno scientific research and education in climatic design and modern tropical architecture Drawing on the interdisciplinary scholarships on postcolonial studies science studies and environmental history Jiat Hwee Chang argues that tropical architecture was inextricably entangled with the socio cultural constructions of tropical nature and the politics of colonial governance and postcolonial development in the British colonial and post colonial networks By bringing to light new historical materials through formidable research and tracing the history of tropical architecture beyond what is widely considered today as its founding moment in the mid twentieth century this important and original book revises our understanding of colonial built environment It also provides a new historical framework that significantly bears upon contemporary concerns with climatic design and sustainable architecture This book is an essential resource for understanding tropical architecture and its various contemporary manifestations Its in depth discussion and path breaking insights will be invaluable to specialists academics students and practitioners Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture Peter Herrle, Stephanus Schmitz, 2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe

Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore Modern
