Salwak, 2016-05-23 Living With A Writer brings together a group of prestigious contributors to discuss the writing lives of contemporary poets novelists critics dramatists editors and collaborators What are the practical considerations of being a writer What are the household dynamics How do the circumstances contribute to the work What does it tell us about the creative process The book features pieces from well known authors and partners in famous literary relationships including John Bayley Amanda Craig Nadine Gordimer Ann Thwaite Paul Theroux and John Updike The Making of Barbara Pym Emily Stockard, 2021-11-10 The Making of Barbara Pym offers new insights into Pym's formative years as a writer during which she honed a complex view of the necessity of change on individual and cultural levels Supported by newly published archival material this comprehensive study of Pym's early work explores her personal and fictional pre war and wartime writing including unpublished and posthumously published works before looking closely at Some Tame Gazelle and Excellent Women published during Britain's post war austerity period Of central importance is a new recognition of Pym's use of social roles particularly those of women as proper avenues for change The book traces how Pym came to devise characters whose individual development can be seen as analogous to or representative of larger cultural movements Pym uses the spinster figure to embody the forward looking cultural perspectives that she endorsed and then finally in Jane and Prudence to figure the end of Britain's austerity period

The Experimental Self Judy Little, 1996 Drawing on Bakhtin Derrida Foucault Lyotard and other modern thinkers Little English Southern Illinois U challenges the notion that Western individuality is oppressive and destructive and examines the political complexity of the self in the novels of 20th century women Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

A Passion for Books D. Salwak, 1999-04-23 Leading writers and critics including Margaret Drabble Alan Sillitoe and Ferdinand Mount share their passion for books and the joys of reading in an inspiring collection of essays and writings A Passion for Books is both a celebration of the value and importance of reading and a spirited defence against the many gloomy voices in our so called electronic age who say the book will soon be obsolete This book itself a joy to read is written for anyone who cares at all about the past and future of books and reading The Testing of Barbara Pym Emily Stockard, 2023-10-23 The Testing of Barbara Pym a companion volume to The Making of Barbara Pym Palgrave Macmillan 2021 completes a comprehensive analysis of Pym's novels and her life focusing on her complex view of the necessity of change at both the individual and cultural levels Newly published archival material supports this treatment of Pym's vision of a changing world a vision premised upon the principle of continuity a linking together of past present and future In her novels published from 1955 1980 beginning with Britain's emergence from post war austerity Pym portrays in an optimistic fashion several changing aspects of British culture expansion of the suburbs acceptance of homosexual men erosion of the class system inclusivity in the Anglican Church But with these changes new strains emerge as well the principle of continuity undergoes radical testing and is then emphatically reasserted Likewise despite upheavals to established patterns in her life chiefly the inability to publish her work Pym persisted in cultivating such elements of continuity as she could an effort rewarded while she was in rural retirement by a return to the publishing world Thus in both Pym's novels and her life continuity survives the duress of testing circumstances

Reference Guide to English Literature D. L. Kirkpatrick, 1991 Concise discussions of the lives and principal works of writers from Britain Ireland Australia Canada New Zealand and English speaking Africa Asia and the Caribbean Written by subject experts Mystery Voices Dale Salwak, 1991-01-01 A series of interviews with authors such as P D James and Julian Symons Masking and Unmasking the Female Mind Mary Anne Schofield, 1990 This work concentrates on how eighteenth century feminine novelists articulate the concerns important to women's lives and fates and argues that these novelists used their romances to combat the controlling ideologies of the age Teaching Life Dale Salwak, 2008-04 Part epistolary memoir part handbook Teaching Life reflects on more than three decades of teaching literature and touching the lives of students Both a reflection on a life in literature and a primer on teaching as a vocation this soul stirring work also provides behind the scenes stories of many of the authors who have influenced Dale Salwak's career Written in response to the sudden death of one of his students who died tragically in an automobile accident on her way to Salwak's office to talk over her career plans Teaching Life is an effort to impart lessons to the next generation of teachers It was the suddenness of her death I think along with the utter loss of so much potential which struck me forcibly and I found myself wondering if anything I had said in class had made a difference in her too short life or for that matter in the lives of any of my students By turns analytical reflective and exhortatory Teaching Life unselfconsciously captures the fascination enlightenment and sheer joy that literary studies can offer professors and students It also implicitly speaks to society's prevailing and disturbing prejudice against the profession
