

From the reviews of Timon Woods:

"Theroux is a certified, grade A, major, new talent . . . Read this book . . . You will laugh. You will be astonished."

D. Keith Mann

The New York Times Book Review

"Once the reader has become accustomed to the flamboyances of Mr. Theroux's extravagant, bombastic style, he can settle down to the feast spread before him and enjoy bit by bit the comicatations, the precision, and the persuasiveness of an acute playful intelligence all too ready to cozen the unwary. . . While the author's sense of the absurd is as broadly conveyed as his satirical intent what distinguishes his work is an astonishing ability to absorb an alien culture so . . . accurately. . . As striking tour de force the book is incomparable."

The Virginia Quarterly Review

"Of the many first novels published during the year one stood out as marking the start of what is surely to be an important career for its young author. . . Three separate narratives are brilliantly joined by a style that contains the richest word-board of any American writer in some years. Comparisons will be made with Joyce, but they would be gratuitous, for Theroux has a voice of his own."
