Draugsvold, 2020-07-17 Since its inception the Nobel Prize for literature has given a very public voice to some of the world's greatest writers and their responses to the honor their acceptance speeches have often been epochal From the famed call to arms by William Faulkner to the multicultural song of Derek Walcott from 1903's Bjornstjerne Bjornson to 1999's Gunter Grass this collection of 28 speeches traces the ideals of the artists and the selection committee itself throughout the 20th century Included are an introduction to each of the writers chosen an abridged copy of the speech or lecture and a bibliography of works in English Translation Practices Ashley Chantler, Carla Dente, 2009 This cutting edge collection born of a belief in the value of approaching translation in a wide range of ways contains essays of interest to students and scholars of translation literary and textual studies It provides insights into the relations between translation and comparative literature contrastive linguistics cultural studies painting and other media Subjects and authors discussed include the translator as go between the textual editor as translator Ghirri's photography and Celati's fiction the European lending library La Bible d'Amiens the coining of Italian phraseological units Michèle Roberts's Impossible Saints the impact of modern translations for stage on perceptions of ancient Greek drama and the translation of slang intensifiers characterisation desire the self and America in 1990s Italian fiction The collection closes with David Platzer's discussion of translating Dacia Maraini's poetry into English and with his new translations of Ho Sognato una Stazione I Dreamed of a Station and Le Tue Bugie Your Lies Comic Medievalism Louise D'Arcens, 2014 The role of laughter and humour in the postmedieval citation interpretation or recreation of the middle ages has hitherto received little attention a gap in scholarship which this book aims to fill Examining a wide range of comic texts and practices across several centuries from Don Quixote and early Chaucerian modernisation through to Victorian theatre the Monty Python films television and the experience of visiting sites of heritage tourism such as the Jorvik Viking Museum at York it identifies what has been perceived as uniquely funny about the Middle Ages in different times and places and how this has influenced ideas not just about the medieval but also about modernity Tracing the development and permutations of its various registers including satire parody irony camp wit jokes and farce the author offers fresh and amusing insight into comic medievalism as a vehicle for critical commentary on the present as well as the past and shows that for as long as there has been medievalism people have laughed at and with the middle ages Louise D'Arcens is Associate Professor in English Literatures at the University of Wollongong Diverse Pursuits Javed Malick, 2021-07-07 The five essays in this book reflect many years of the author's sustained academic engagement with dramatic forms and traditions The opening essay traces the historical trajectory of modern drama in Europe from its bourgeois period through the period of the liberal dissent to the more recent periods of radical alternative The subsequent essays deal with certain specific examples of that drama in India and the West such as Shakespeare adaptations on the Parsi theatre stage Habib Tanvir and Samuel Beckett The author places each of these in a historical perspective This approach constitutes the theoretical underpinning of the book giving cohesion to this collection of diverse essays Although they were individually published in various journals and books in their earlier versions they have been substantially revived and updated by the author for this volume This book is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Spirit of '68 Gerd-Rainer Horn, 2008-10-02 In virtually all corners of the Western world 1968 witnessed a highly unusual sequence of popular rebellions In Italy France Spain Vietnam the United States West Germany Czechoslovakia Mexico and elsewhere millions of individuals took matters into their own hands to counter imperialism capitalism autocracy bureaucracy and all forms of hierarchical thinking Recent reinterpretations have sought to play down any real challenge to the socio political status quo in these events but Gerd Rainer Horn s book offers a spirited counterblast 1968 he argues opened up the possibility that economic and political elites on both sides of the Iron Curtain could be toppled from their position of unnatural superiority to make way for a new society where everyday people could for the first time become masters of their own destiny Furthermore Horn contends the moment of crisis and opportunity culminating in 1968 must be seen as part of a larger period of experimentation and revolt The ten years between 1956 and 1966 characterised above all by the flourishing of iconoclastic cultural rebellions can be regarded as a preparatory period which set the stage for the non conformist cum political revolts of the subsequent red decade 1966 1976 Horn s geographic centres of attention are Western Europe including the first full examination of Mediterranean revolts and North America He placed particular emphasis on cultural nonconformity the student movement working class rebellions the changing contours of the Left and the meaning of participatory democracy His book will make fascinating reading for anyone interested in this turbulent period and the fundamental changes that were wrought upon societies either side of the Atlantic

The Puppetry Yearbook , 2005 The Transformations of Tragedy Fionnuala O'Neill Tønning, Erik Tønning, Jolyon Mitchell, 2019-11-26 The Transformations of Tragedy Christian

Influences from Early Modern to Modern explores the influence of Christian theology and culture upon the development of post classical Western tragedy The volume is divided into three parts early modern modern and contemporary This series of essays by established and emergent scholars offers a sustained study of Christianity s creative influence upon experimental forms of Western tragic drama Both early modern and modern tragedy emerged within periods of remarkable upheaval in Church history yet Christianity s diverse influence upon tragedy has too often been either ignored or denounced by major tragic theorists This book contends instead that the history of tragedy cannot be sufficiently theorised without fully registering the impact of Christianity in transition towards modernity

The Shadow of the Precursor Nena Bierbaum, 2011-10-18 A shadow in its most literal sense is the projection of a silhouette against a surface and the obstruction of direct light from hitting that surface For writers and artists the shadows cast by their precursors can be either a welcome influence one consciously evoked in textual production via homage or bricolage or can manifest as an intrusive haunting prohibitive presence one which threatens to engulf the successor Many writers and artists are affected by an anxious and ambiguous relationship with their precursors while others are energised by this relationship The role that intertextuality plays in creative production invites interrogation and this publication explores a range of conscious and unconscious influences informing relations between texts and contexts between predecessors and successors The chapters revolve around intertextual influence ranging from conscious imitation and intentional allusion to Julia Kristeva s idea of intertextuality Do all texts contain references to and even quotations from other texts Do such references help shape how we read This multidisciplinary work includes chapters on the long shadows cast by Shakespeare Dante Scott Virgil and Ovid the shadows of colonial precursors on postcolonial successors the shadows cast over Kipling and Murdoch and chapters on other writers dramatists and filmmakers and their relationships with precursor figures With its focus on intertextual relationships this book contributes to the thriving fields of adaptation studies and studies of intertextuality
