New Music at Darmstadt Martin Iddon, 2013-04-18 The first full length English language discussion of the Darmstadt New Music Courses showing the rise and fall of the Darmstadt School The Twelve-Note Music of Anton Webern Kathryn Bailey, 1991 This important new study reassesses the position of Anton Webern in twentieth century music The twelve note method of composition adopted by Anton Webern had profound consequences for composers of the next generation such as Stockhausen and Boulez who saw Webern's music as revolutionary In her detailed analyses however Professor Bailey demonstrates a fundamentally traditional aspect to Webern's creativity when describing his own music Professor Bailey analyses all Webern's twelve note works from Op 17 to Op 31 i e the instrumental and vocal music written between 1924 and 1943 These analyses draw on sketch material recently made available at the Paul Sacher Foundation in Basel and include transcriptions of little known drafts and sketches A most valuable aspect of the book is the inclusion in appendices of such materials as a complete explanation of the row content of each work the correct prime form of each of the rows from Op 20 onwards with a matrix constructed for each and exhaustive row analyses Musica Asiatica: Volume 6 Allan Marett, 1991-05-16 This is the sixth volume in a series of books devoted to the history documentation and analysis of music in Asia Four essays are dedicated to documents from the past fifth century Korean tomb paintings tenth century Chinese scores for lute eighth century Japanese documents early Chinese sutras on the perception of sound The remainder concern contemporary documents the notations of the Japanese end blown flute shakuhachi and lute biwa and their relationship to performance acoustical analysis of contemporary shakuhachi The focus on musical documents whether ancient or modern provides a unifying thread which renders this volume unique in the ethnomusicological literature on East Asian music A History of Western Choral Music, Volume 2 Chester L. Alwes, 2016-08-03 A History of Western Choral Music explores the various genres key composers and influential works essential to the development of the western choral tradition Author Chester L Alwes divides this exploration into two volumes which move from Medieval music and the Renaissance era up to the 21st century Volume II begins at the transition from the Classical era to the Romantic with an examination of the major genres common to both periods Exploring the oratorio part song and dramatic music it also offers a thorough discussion of the choral symphony from Beethoven to Mahler through to the present day It then delves into the choral music of the twentieth century through discussions of the major compositional approaches and philosophies that proliferated over the course of the century from impressionism to serialism neo classicism to modernism minimalism and the avant garde It also considers the emerging tendency towards nationalistic composition amongst composers such as Bartók and Stravinsky and discusses in great detail the contemporary music of the United States and Great Britain Framing discussion within the political religious cultural philosophical aesthetic and technological contexts of each era A History of Western Choral Music offers readers specialized insight into major composers and works while providing a cohesive understanding of choral music

The Differentiation of Modernism Larson Powell, 2013 The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes the phenomenon of intermediality in German radio plays film music and electronic music of the late modernist period 1945-1980 After 1945 the purist medium specificity of high modernism increasingly yielded to the mixed forms of intermediality Theodor Adorno dubbed this development a Verfransung or fraying of boundaries between the arts The Differentiation of Modernism analyzes this phenomenon in German electronic media arts of the late modernist period 1945-80 in radio plays film music and electronic music The first part of the book begins with a chapter on Adorno's theory of radio as an instrument of democratization going on to analyze the relationship of the Hörspiel or radio play to electronic music In the second part on film music a chapter on Adorno and Eisler's Composing for the Film sets the parameters for chapters on the film Das Mädchen Rosemarie 1957 and on the music films of Jean Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet The third part examines the music of Karlheinz Stockhausen and its relationship to radio abstract painting recording technology and theatrical happenings The book's central notion of the differentiation of culture suggests that late modernism unlike high modernism accepted the contingency of modern mass media driven society and sought to find new forms for it Larson Powell is Curator's Professor of
