Anesthesiologist's Manual of Surgical Procedures Richard A. Jaffe, 2012-03-19 Completely updated and now in full color this practical reference is a comprehensive guide to the anesthetic and perioperative management of patients during all procedures performed by general and subspecialist surgeons The book explains each procedure from both the surgeon's and the anesthesiologist's perspective presents details on anesthetic technique and guides the anesthesiologist and surgeon through the decisions that must be made before during and after surgery Emphasis is on factors that impact the anesthesiologist including patient positioning duration of surgery and complications The Fourth Edition covers almost 40 new surgical procedures with an increased focus on laparoscopic and endovascular procedures A companion Website will offer the fully searchable text and an image bank

Religion, Medicine and the Human Embryo in Tibet Frances Garrett, 2008-04-24 This book explores the cultural history of embryology in Tibet in culture religion art and literature and what this reveals about its medicine and religion Filling a significant gap in the literature this is the first in depth exploration of Tibetan medical history in the English language It reveals the prevalence of descriptions of the development of the human body from conception to birth found in all forms of Tibetan religious literature as well as in medical texts and in art By analysing stories of embryology Frances Garrett explores questions of cultural transmission and adaptation How did Tibetan writers adapt ideas inherited from India and China for their own purposes What original views did they develop on the body on gender on creation and on life itself The transformations of embryological narratives over several centuries illuminate key turning points in Tibetan medical history and its relationship with religious doctrine and practice Embryology was a site for both religious and medical theorists to contemplate profound questions of being and becoming where topics such as pharmacology and nosology were left to shape secular medicine The author argues that in terms of religion stories of human development comment on embodiment gender socio political hierarchy religious ontology and spiritual progress Through the lens of embryology this book examines how these concerns shift as Tibetan history moves through the formative renaissance period of the twelfth through to the seventeenth centuries
