

Who am I?

People call me by different names – some call me an introvert, others call me sweet, yet others call me short-tempered while some say that I am full of attitude. Well, people have the habit of tagging others. They are quick to judge and label others. I believe that it is wrong to label anyone. We are humans experiencing numerous emotions during the day. I also have experienced a mix of different emotions every day. It would be wrong to call me by any of the aforementioned names. Moreover, I dream of living independently in terms of financially and emotionally in the future.

I am a chill person who loves enjoying life. I do not like to interfere in the lives of my relatives, neighbors, or others around me and expect the same from them. I want them to mind their own business rather than poking their noses in my tasks. People often mistake this bracing nature of mine as being arrogant and rude. They feel that I have an attitude problem and think of myself as superior to them. However, this is not true. Though I don't want people to poke or bother me, I am always ready to help. I don't hesitate to go out of my way to lend a helping hand to people if they genuinely need it.

I am self-disciplined. I wake up each morning and prepare a to-do list. I want the tasks done in the same sequence and within the time frame, I have set for myself, and do my best to accomplish the same. Not being able to accomplish these tasks on time can leave me dissatisfied and make me frustrated. I have always been a topper in my class and want to continue the trend even as I take on higher challenges in life. I read many books other than my textbooks. Reading horror and detective storybooks is what I like which helps me to relieve stress.

In conclusion, my friends often call me a unique combination of a brace, carefree, and disciplined. I am blessed to have a supportive

The Politics of the Essay Ruth-Ellen B. Joeres, Elizabeth Mittman, 1993-08-22 The Politics of the Essay is that rare scholarly work that provides both a history of this relatively new field and of its formal characteristics and inspires its readers to want to participate in the making of this history Signs The first in depth study of the relationship between women and essays Employing gender race class and national identity as axes of analysis this volume introduces new perspectives into what has been a largely apolitical discussion of the essay Includes an original essay by Susan Griffin Who Am I? Richard David Precht, 2011-08-23 1 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER TRANSLATED INTO 23 LANGUAGES WITH MORE THAN ONE MILLION COPIES SOLD What is truth What is love Does life have meaning Bestselling author Richard David Precht the Mick Jagger of the nonfiction book Tagesanzeiger Z rich has traveled the globe searching for answers and his odyssey has become one of the most talked about books around the world Combining classic philosophy and cutting edge neuroscience Precht guides readers through the thickest jungles of academic discourse with the greatest of ease taking on subjects as challenging and divisive as abortion cloning the eating of animals euthanasia the ethics of reproductive science and the very future of humanity Who knows By the end of this wildly entertaining journey you just might be able to answer Who Am I Who's Black and Why? Henry Louis Gates, Jr., Andrew S. Curran, 2022-01-01 A fascinating if disturbing window onto the origins of racism Publishers Weekly The eighteenth century essays published for the first time in Who's Black and Why contain a world of ideas theories inventions and fantasies about what blackness is and what it means To read them is to witness European intellectuals in the age of the Atlantic slave trade struggling one after another to justify atrocity Jill Lepore author of These Truths A History of the United States The first translation and publication of sixteen submissions to the notorious eighteenth century Bordeaux essay contest on the cause of black skin an indispensable chronicle of the rise of scientifically based anti Black racism In 1739 Bordeaux's Royal Academy of Sciences announced a contest for the best essay on the sources of blackness What is the physical cause of blackness and African hair and what is the cause of Black degeneration the contest announcement asked Sixteen essays written in French and Latin were ultimately dispatched from all over Europe The authors ranged from naturalists to physicians theologians to amateur savants Documented on each page are European ideas about who is Black and why Looming behind these essays is the fact that some four million Africans had been kidnapped and shipped across the Atlantic by the time the contest was announced The essays themselves represent a broad range of opinions Some affirm that Africans had fallen from God's grace others that blackness had resulted from a brutal climate still others emphasized the anatomical specificity of Africans All the submissions nonetheless circulate around a common theme the search for a scientific understanding of the new concept of race More important they provide an indispensable record of the Enlightenment era thinking that normalized the sale and enslavement of Black human beings These never previously published documents survived the centuries tucked away in Bordeaux's municipal library Translated
