

BRING YOUR WRITING TO LIFE

THE POWER OF PERSONIFICATION!

Personification is a fun and creative literary device that can make your writing more engaging and memorable.

| Example                                                  | Description                                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| "The wind whispered secrets in my ear."                  | Giving human qualities (whispering) to a non-human thing (wind)             |
| "The sun smiled down on us."                             | Giving human qualities (smiling) to a non-human thing (sun)                 |
| "The flowers danced in the breeze."                      | Giving human qualities (dancing) to a non-human thing (flowers)             |
| "The car coughed and sputtered before finally starting." | Giving human qualities (coughing and sputtering) to a non-human thing (car) |

Personification is a powerful tool for writers who want to create vivid and memorable descriptions. By giving human qualities to non-human things, you can make your writing more relatable and engaging. Whether you're writing poetry, prose, or just a simple email, try incorporating some personification to bring your words to life!

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
