Brockopp, 2010-04-19 As the Messenger of God Muhammad stands at the heart of the Islamic religion revered by Muslims throughout the world The Cambridge Companion to Muhammad comprises a collection of essays by some of the most accomplished scholars in the field exploring the life and legacy of the Prophet The book is divided into three sections the first charting his biography and the milieu into which he was born the revelation of the Qur n and his role within the early Muslim community The second part assesses his legacy as a law maker philosopher and politician and finally in the third part chapters examine how Muhammad has been remembered across history in biography prose poetry and most recently in film and fiction Essays are written to engage and inform students teachers and readers coming to the subject for the first time They will come away with a deeper appreciation of the breadth of the Islamic tradition of the centrality of the role of the Prophet in that tradition and indeed of what it means to be a Muslim today Human Nature, Cultural Diversity, and the French Enlightenment Henry Vyverberg, 1989 In this work Henry Vyverberg traces the evolution and consequences of a crucial idea in French Enlightenment thought the idea of human nature Human nature was commonly seen as a broadly universal unchanging entity though perhaps modifiable by geographical social and historical factors Enlightenment empiricism suggested a degree of cultural diversity that has often been underestimated in studies of the age Evidence here is drawn from Diderot's celebrated Encyclopedia and from a vast range of writing by such Enlightenment notables as Voltaire Rousseau and d'Holbach Vyverberg explains not only the age's undoubted fascination with uniformity in human nature but also its acknowledgment of significant limitations on that uniformity He shows that although the Enlightenment's historical sense was often blinkered by its notions of a uniform human nature there were also cracks in this concept that developed during the Enlightenment itself Voltaire et l'Islam, 1974* Constructing the Image of Muhammad in Europe Avinoam Shalem, 2013-06-26 the volume represents a significant contribution to the complex history of the conceptualization and pictorialization of the Prophet Muhammad in the West It gives a rapid and though deep overview of the history of the making of an image of the Prophet Muhammad in Europe and thus reflects the whole history of the making of the image of Islam in the Latin West from the early medieval times till the 19th century The book also provides the reader with ready access to the most recent scholarship concerning the image of Muhammad in Europe in the form of comprehensive footnotes provided throughout the text and an extensive bibliography The Image of the Prophet between Ideal and Ideology Christiane J. Hegel in the Arab World Lorella Ventura, 2018-05-02 Hegel's philosophy has been of fundamental importance for the development of contemporary thought and for the very representation of Western modernity This book investigates Hegel's influence in the Arab world generally considered other and far from the West focusing specifically on Syria Lebanon and Egypt Lorella Ventura discusses the reception of Hegelian thought and outlines a conceptual grid to help interpret the historical cultural and political events that have affected the Arab region in the last two centuries and shed light on some aspects of its complex relationship with the western world

Enlightenment Contested Jonathan I. Israel, 2006-10-12 Jonathan Israel presents the first major reassessment of the Western Enlightenment for a generation Continuing the story he began in the best selling Radical Enlightenment and now focusing his attention on the first half of the eighteenth century he returns to the original sources to offer a groundbreaking new perspective on the nature and development of the most important currents in modern thought Israel traces many of the core principles of Western modernity to their roots in the social political and philosophical ferment of this period the primacy of reason democracy racial equality feminism religious toleration sexual emancipation and freedom of expression He emphasizes the dual character of the Enlightenment and the bitter struggle between on the one hand a generally dominant anti democratic mainstream supporting the monarchy aristocracy and ecclesiastical authority and on the other a largely repressed democratic republican and materialist radical fringe He also contends that the supposedly separate French British German Dutch and Italian enlightenments interacted to such a degree that their study in isolation gives a hopelessly distorted picture A work of dazzling and highly accessible scholarship Enlightenment Contested will be the definitive reference point for historians philosophers and anyone engaged with this fascinating period of human development
