Braided Selves Pamela Cooper-White, 2011-06-10 What if we are more multiple as persons than traditional psychology has taught us to believe And what if our multiplicity is a part of how we are made in the very image of a loving relational multiple God How have modern Western notions of Oneness caused harm to both individuals and society And how can an appreciation of our multiplicity help liberate the voices of those who live at the margins both of society and within our own complex selves Braided Selves explores these questions from the perspectives of postmodern pastoral psychology and Trinitarian theology with implications for the practice of spiritual care counseling and psychotherapy This volume gathers ten years of essays on this theme by preeminent pastoral theologian Pamela Cooper White whose writings bring into dialogue postmodern feminist and psychoanalytic theory and constructive theology

Caribbean Ghostwriting Erica L. Johnson, 2009 Caribbean Ghostwriting addresses a question central to the fields of postcolonial feminist and African diasporic studies how are we to know the colonial past when the lives of colonized and enslaved people were largely written out of history Caribbean authors Michelle Cliff Maryse Conde and Dionne Brand address the silences and gaps of historiography by fleshing out overlooked historical figures in literary form These authors do not simply reconstruct lost lives but rather they foreground the tension between the real material traces of people's lives and the fact of their erasure In novels that are at once historical biographical and artistic they portray real but sparsely documented and therefore haunting histories through a strategy identifiable as ghostwriting Erica L Johnson defines ghostwriting as an important genre of Caribbean literature through which authors literally ghostwrite stories for lost historical figures even while they poetically preserve the unspeakable nature of the archival lacunae their novels engage Erica L Johnson teaches world literature at Wagner College Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-04 The Future of Trauma Theory Gert Buelens,Samuel Durrant,Robert Eaglestone,2013-10-30 This collection analyses the future of trauma theory a major theoretical discourse in contemporary criticism and theory The chapters advance the current state of the field by exploring new areas asking new questions and making new connections Part one History and Culture begins by developing trauma theory in its more familiar post deconstructive mode and explores how these insights might still be productive It goes on via a critique of existing positions to relocate trauma theory in a postcolonial and globalized world theoretically aesthetically and materially and focuses on non Western accounts and understandings of trauma memory and suffering Part two Politics and Subjectivity turns explicitly to politics and subjectivity focussing on the state and the various forms of subjection to which it gives rise and on human rights biopolitics and community Each chapter in different ways advocates a movement beyond the sort of texts and concepts that are the usual focus for trauma criticism and moves this dynamic network of ideas forward With contributions from an international selection of leading critics and thinkers from the US and Europe this volume will be a key critical intervention in one of the most important areas in contemporary literary criticism and theory Meridians ,2003 The Postcolonial World Jyotsna G. Singh,David D. Kim,2016-10-04 The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary transcultural field Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay the eight sections examine Affective Postcolonial Histories Postcolonial Desires Religious Imaginings Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies cultural practices material forms and affective affiliations The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism

The Global Politics of Impairment and Disability Helen Meekosha,Karen Soldatic,2016-01-13 Disability is of central concern to the developing world but has largely been under represented in global development debates discourses and negotiations Similarly disability studies has overlooked the theorists or the social experience of the global South and there has been a one way transfer of ideas and knowledge from the North to the South in this field This volume seeks to redress the processes of scholarly colonialism by drawing together a diverse set of understandings theorizing and experiences The chapters situate disability within the Southern context and support the work of Southern disabled scholars and activists seeking to decolonize Southern experiences knowledges and absences in the field while simultaneously attempting to make an intervention into able bodied mainstream development discourses practices and politics This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly The Visceral Logics of Decolonization Neetu Khanna,2020-02-28 In The Visceral Logics of Decolonization Neetu Khanna rethinks the project of decolonization by exploring a knotted set of relations between embodied experience and political feeling that she conceptualizes as the visceral Khanna focuses on the work of the Progressive Writers Association PWA a Marxist anticolonial literary group active in India between the 1930s and 1950s to show how anticolonial literature is a staging ground for exploring racialized emotion and revolutionary feeling Among others Khanna examines novels by Mulk Raj Anand Ahmed Ali and Khwaja Ahmad Abbas as well as the feminist writing of Rashid Jahan and Ismat Chughtai who each center the somatic life of the body as a fundamental site of colonial subjugation In this way decolonial action comes not solely from mental transformation but from a reconstitution of the sensorial nodes of the body The visceral Khanna contends therefore becomes a critical dimension of Marxist theories of revolutionary consciousness In tracing the contours of the visceral s role in decolonial literature and politics Khanna bridges affect and postcolonial theory in new and provocative ways Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Intergenerational
