literacy information literacy and lifelong learning Method and Theory in Historical Archeology Stanley South,2002-12-31 Described by Lewis Binford in his new foreword as a solid foundation on which to build a vital and growing historical archaeology Stanley South's famous book on historical archaeology includes a new introduction by the author that discusses how the book came to be written and the evolution of the field Widely regarded as one of the most influential books in historical archaeology the book was originally published by Academic Press in 1977 Obedient Autonomy Erika E.S. Evasdottir,2007-10-01 In the west the idea of autonomy is often associated with a sense of freedom a self interested state of being unfettered by rules or obligations to others This original anthropological study explores a type of obedient autonomy that thrives on setbacks blossoms as more rules are imposed and flourishes in adversity Obedient Autonomy analyzes this model and explains its precepts through examining the specialized and highly organized discipline of archaeology in China The book follows Chinese students on their journey to becoming full fledged archaeologists in a bureaucracy saturated environment Often required to travel in teams to the countryside archaeologists are uniquely obliged to overcome divisions among themselves between themselves and their peasant workers and between themselves and bureaucratic officials This analysis reveals how these interactions provide teachers of archaeology with stories used to foster obedient autonomy in their students Moreover it demonstrates how this form of autonomy enables a person to order and control their future careers in what appears to be a disorderly and uncertain world A masterly contextualization of archaeology in China Obedient Autonomy shows how the discipline has accommodated itself to a Chinese social structure and uncovers the moral ethical political and economic underpinnings of that context It will be accessible to students of anthropology even as it will provoke Euro American archaeologists and interest social theorists of science philosophers gender theorists and students of Chinese society Historical and Archeological Data Preservation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs. Subcommittee on National Parks and Recreation,1973 The Archeology of New Hampshire David R. Starbuck,2006 A complete archeological guide to New Hampshire from prehistoric times to the present
