Bertrand Blier:

Bertrand Blier Sue Harris, 2019-01-04 The most complete study of Blier's work to date Harris traces the director's career from the early 1960s until the present Outlines the forms themes and style which dominate in Blier's work and challenges the many labels that have been used to describe both the corpus of films and the man himself Provides an original and controversial discussion of Blier's alleged misogyny and invites the reader to understand the scatological and corporeal aspects of Blier's filmmaking in terms of long established traditions of popular dramatic culture Brings to light the comic mechanisms underpinning Blier's films and identifies strategies which navigate through one of the most entertaining and disconcerting bodies of work of recent years The first book on Blier published in English French Cinema Rómi Fournier Lanzoni, Rómi Fournier-Lanzoni, 2015-10-22 An all encompassing history of French motion pictures and cinematographic trends chronologically from 1895 to the present Bertrand Blier and Misogyny Sue Harris, Russell S. King, 1996 Voices of France Sheila Perry, Marie Cross, 1997-01-01 Comprising 15 contributions this volume explores the many expressions of French culture from the effects of opinion polls on democracy and oral histories to the expression of specific socio cultural groups in French society Avenues of communication explored include self expression or collectively shared myths and metaphors visual linguistic or textual media including women's filmmaking and the rise of hip hop and ragga in France and political participation and practice ranging from discussions about homelessness to the re creating of collective identities in urban France Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Contemporary French Cinema Guy Austin, 1996-11-15 Examines popular French film of the last 25 years Charts recent developments in all genres since the New Wave including the heritage film the thriller the war film cinema du look Other topics include representations of sexuality the work of women film makers Includes a filmography Jean-Luc Godard's Pierrot Le Fou David Wills, 2000-04-28 Jean Luc Godard's Pierrot le fou 1965 made at the height of the French New Wave remains a milestone in French cinema More accessible than his later films it represents the diverse facets of Godard's concerns and themes a bittersweet analysis of male female relations an interrogation of the image personal and international politics the existential dilemmas of consumer society This volume brings together essays by five prominent scholars of French film They approach Pierrot le fou from the perspectives of image and word play aesthetics and politics history and high and popular culture A full filmography and a selection of reviews are included Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumiére screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumiére brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz,MaryEllen Higgins,2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumi re in 1895 with the invention of the cin matographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cin matographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumi re's La Sortie de l usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumi re factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges M li s Alice Guy and Charles Path Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean Luc Godard Fran ois Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve G rard Depardieu and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

Marianne and the Puritan David I. Grossvogel,2005-01-01 As recent history continues to show France and the United states enjoy a love hate relationship Expressions of admiration and dismissal of one culture by the other are usually based on superficial judgments derived from well worn clichZs that do little more than perpetuate perceived and real differences between the two societies Those who study these differences inevitably examine them through their own cultural peculiarities Marianne and the Puritan attempts to draw these various analyses together by contrasting the different ways each culture constructs the romantic couple through U S and French popular cinema David I Grossvogel's broad sweeping comparative and interdisciplinary study is conducted with great elegance and erudition It is a must for film studies literary criticism francophone studies art history and cultural sociology and anthropology
